Glazed Pears with Cinnamon Whipped Cream

Total Time: 20-30 minutes Calories per Serving: 380

Serves: 2 people

Warning! Your kitchen will smell heavenly and draw a crowd while these sweet d'Anjou pears broil in the oven. Topped with fresh cinnamon whipped cream, this is a dessert dish that's as easy as it is alluring.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat broiler to high. Rinse pears, then quarter and discard cores. Line a baking sheet with foil and set aside.

2. Make Whipped Cream

In a medium bowl, add heavy cream, powdered sugar, and cinnamon. Using a whisk or an electric mixer, whip until cream is thickened and fluffy and stiff peaks form, about 3 minutes. Place in refrigerator to chill until ready to use.

3. Broil Pears

Place pears cut-side up on prepared baking sheet. Sprinkle over brown sugar, pressing to adhere. Break butter into small pieces and dot on top. Transfer to top rack of oven and broil until tender and just beginning to char, 7-9 minutes (see Recipe Tip).

4. Plate Pears

Remove pears from oven and allow to cool for a few minutes. Dollop over cinnamon whipped cream. Garnish with caramelized hazelnuts and enjoy on charming plates.
