Grilled Chicken Tikka

with Turmeric Rice and Cilantro Raita

We love the moist, flavorful results of marinating chicken in Greek yogurt and tikka masala curry paste. Here, the marinade chars on the grill as the chicken cooks for depth of flavor and slightly crispy texture. We pair with turmeric rice and haricots verts (skinny French green beans), plus a cooling raita of more yogurt, white wine vinegar, and cilantro.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

No outdoor grill or grill pan? In Step 5, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear until cooked through and no longer pink, 6 minutes per side.

The stems of cilantro are actually quite tender, so we've kept them for extra flavor and aroma in the raita.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Marinate chicken

Preheat grill to medium heat (see recipe tip). In a large shallow bowl or resealable plastic bag, whisk together tikka masala curry paste, ¼ cup Greek yogurt (reserve remainder), 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat chicken dry with paper towel, add to marinade, and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate at room temperature until Step 5.

2. Prepare ingredients

While chicken marinates, rinse all produce. Trim and discard ends of haricots verts (line up the ends to trim them all at once), then cut crosswise into 1-inch pieces. Roughly chop cilantro leaves and stems (see recipe tip).

3. Cook rice and haricots verts

In a medium pot, combine rice, turmeric, 1½ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer for 8 minutes (move on to Step 4—but don't forget to come back). Then, stir in haricots verts; cover pot again and cook until water is absorbed and haricots verts are tender, 2–4 minutes more. Remove pot from heat; let stand, still covered, until Step 6.

4. Make cilantro raita

While rice cooks, in a small bowl, whisk together white wine vinegar, remaining Greek yogurt, half of cilantro, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Set raita aside for serving.

5. Grill chicken tikka

If using a grill pan, place it over medium-high heat now. Remove chicken tikka from marinade, allowing excess to drip off, and add to grill. Cook until lightly charred, cooked through, and no longer pink, 4–6 minutes per side. Transfer to a plate and set aside to rest, about 5 minutes.

6. Plate grilled chicken tikka

While chicken rests, fluff turmeric rice and haricots verts with a fork. Taste and season with salt and pepper as desired, then divide among serving plates. Top with grilled chicken tikka, then dollop over cilantro raita. Garnish with almonds and pepper as desired. Dig in!
