Modern life is rife with important questions. How might one do the least amount of work and still eat gooey homemade cinnamon rolls? (Well, try out this easy recipe.) Can a person go from nothing to cinnamon rolls in under 45 minutes? (A resounding yes.) We wonder what questions tomorrow will bring.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 375°F. In a small bowl, microwave butter at 30-second intervals until completely melted.

2. Roll Out Dough

Sprinkle flour over a clean dry surface. Turn out dough and using a rolling pin or the heels of your hands, roll and stretch into a rectangular shape, about ¼-inch thick. Carefully transfer to a parchment-lined baking sheet.

3. Assemble Rolls

Brush ½ of melted butter onto dough, then sprinkle over 2 tablespoons spice mix. Beginning with long end closest to your body, roll dough away from you, creating a cylinder, and seal closed (see Recipe Tip). Slice crosswise into 4 equal pieces to make rolls.

4. Bake Cinnamon Rolls

Fit 2 rolls into each tin. Pour over remaining butter and sprinkle over remaining spice mix. Place tins on parchment-lined baking sheet from dough and bake until rolls are fragrant and tops are golden, about 30 minutes. Remove and set aside to cool for 5 minutes.

5. Make Icing & Plate Rolls

While rolls bake, in a small bowl, whisk together powdered sugar and 1 tablespoon warm water. Pour icing over rolls while still warm. Serve warm or at room temperature. Store any leftovers covered for up to 2 days at room temperature.
