Greek Baked Ziti

with Mozzarella and Feta

We're keeping everything you love about classic baked ziti—the rich, saucy beef, the pasta, and the blanket of melty cheese—and adding a Greek twist. Cinnamon adds warmth and subtle sweet notes to the beef, a great counter to the salty feta that's sprinkled on top. If you're like us, you'll head straight for those crispy edges of pasta and cheese in the tin as soon as the bake comes out of the oven.

8" medium pot
12" large high-sided pan
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Want to get a kitchen helper involved? They can strip the oregano leaves in Step 4, and pour the ziti into the tins and add the cheeses in Step 5.

Placing the tins on a baking sheet helps stabilize the ziti as it bakes for easy transfer to the oven and even cooking.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F (see recipe tip). Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Mince garlic.

2. Cook beef

Pat beef dry with paper towel. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large high-sided pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and sauté, stirring, until softened, 3–4 minutes. Stir in cinnamon and garlic to combine, 1 minute. Add beef and season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, 6–8 minutes.

3. Cook ziti

While beef cooks, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in ziti and cook until almost al dente, 5–6 minutes (it will finish cooking in the oven). Drain and return to pot, off heat.

4. Finish sauce

While ziti cooks, to pan with beef, still over medium-high heat, stir in tomato paste and 2 cups water. Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring, until thickened, 5–7 minutes. Meanwhile, rinse oregano and strip leaves, discarding stems, then mince. Once thickened, remove pan with sauce from heat and stir in half of oregano, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Add ziti to pan and stir to combine.

5. Bake ziti

Reshape aluminum tins, if bent, and place on a baking sheet (see recipe tip). Divide ziti and sauce between tins and spread in an even layer. Sprinkle over mozzarella and feta. Bake until cheeses are golden and bubbling, 7–10 minutes. Use the downtime to get ahead on dishes or set the table.

6. Plate Greek baked ziti

Let Greek baked ziti cool slightly, then divide among serving plates. Garnish with remaining oregano. Dig in!
