Glazed Turkey Thighs with Mashed Sweet Potatoes and Brussels Sprouts

Total Time: 45-55 minutes Calories per Serving: 760

Serves: 2 people

Marmalade is a preserve that's been boiled with fruit, sugar, and water. It's cooked for longer than jam or jelly, and has a smoother texture. Combined here with soy sauce and orange juice makes a glaze that gives the turkey thighs a shiny, citrusy, salty-sweet lacquer.

USDA recommends cooking turkey to 165° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Zest orange, then halve. Strip rosemary and thyme leaves, discarding all stems. Finely chop sage leaves, discarding stems. Cut sweet potatoes into ½-inch dice. Halve Brussels sprouts through roots. Rinse turkey and pat dry with paper towel.

2. Roast Turkey

In a small bowl, mash 2 packets butter with zest of 1 orange, rosemary, thyme, sage, ¼ teaspoon kosher salt, and pepper to make herb butter. Place turkey on a baking sheet. Separate skin from flesh, rub herb butter evenly in between, then replace skin. Season all over with 1 teaspoon kosher salt and pepper. Arrange skin-side up, transfer to oven, and roast until almost cooked through, about 25 minutes.

3. Make Glaze and Season Brussels Sprouts

While turkey roasts, combine apricot marmalade, soy sauce, and juice of 1 orange in a small pot over medium-high heat. Bring to a boil and cook, stirring, until slightly thickened, 1-2 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside. In a medium bowl, toss Brussels sprouts with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon kosher salt, and pepper.

4. Make Mashed Sweet Potatoes

Place sweet potatoes in a medium pot. Cover with cold water and add a generous pinch salt. Bring to a boil over high heat and cook until tender when pierced with a knife tip, about 8 minutes. Drain and return to pot, off the heat. Stir in ½ of maple syrup and remaining butter. Using a large fork or potato masher, mash until smooth. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed. Cover to keep warm and set aside.

5. Roast Brussels Sprouts

After about 25 minutes of roasting, remove turkey and brush glaze on tops. Using a paper towel, dab baking sheet to remove excess fat, then add Brussels sprouts cut-side down in a single layer around. Return to oven and roast together until turkey is cooked through and skin is crisp and browned, about 15 minutes more.

6. Plate Turkey

Serve glazed turkey, mashed sweet potatoes, and roasted Brussels sprouts on spacious plates and commence the feast like a boss. Enjoy remaining maple syrup with your pancakes tomorrow.
