Garlic Basil Shrimp and Grits

with Cherry Tomato Sauce

Shrimp and grits is a traditional dish in the southern coastal region of South Carolina, known as the Lowcountry, where there's an abundance of crustaceans and shellfish. The dish is an ideal backdrop for this Italian-inspired twist. In this repeat recipe, shrimp are submerged in a garlic, basil, and cherry tomato sauce. Velvety corn grits take on salty tang from Parmesan and richness from mascarpone.

Ingredients

- 3 packets unsalted butter
- 1 pint cherry tomatoes
- ¼ ounce basil, divided
- 2 cloves garlic
- 10 ounces shrimp
- ¼ cup white wine
- 1 cup quick-cooking grits
- 3 ounces grated Parmesan cheese
- 4 ounces mascarpone cheese

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" medium pan
6" small pot with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Cutting the butter into small pieces and refrigerating will help it melt evenly into the grits and keep it from separating.

Occasionally whisking the grits prevents clumping. Be sure to return the pot lid after each whisk.

Use the remaining mascarpone as a spread for toast or a dip for fruit.

We recommend rinsing the pot from the grits ASAP to make cleanup easier. Cooled grits can be a tough scrub!

USDA recommends cooking shellfish to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Cut butter into small cubes, place on a plate, and refrigerate until Step 6 (see recipe tip). Rinse cherry tomatoes and halve. Rinse basil and roughly chop or tear leaves, discarding stems. Mince garlic.

2. Sear shrimp

Pat shrimp dry with paper towel and season all over with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add shrimp and cook until just pink, 1–2 minutes per side (the shrimp will finish cooking in the sauce). Using a slotted spoon, transfer shrimp to a plate, then wipe pan clean for the next step.

3. Cook cherry tomato sauce

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in pan from shrimp over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add tomatoes and garlic and cook, pressing tomatoes to release their juices, until softened, 4–6 minutes. Add white wine and simmer until liquid is slightly reduced, 2–3 minutes more. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

4. Cook grits

While sauce cooks, in a small pot, bring 4 cups water to a near-boil over high heat (it should just be lightly bubbling). Whisk in grits and ½ teaspoon salt until smooth. Reduce heat to medium low and cover pot. Cook grits, whisking occasionally, until thickened, 5–7 minutes (see recipe tip). Remove pot from heat and set aside, still covered, until Step 6.

5. Finish garlic basil shrimp

While grits cook, add seared shrimp and half of basil to cherry tomato sauce, still over medium heat. Cook, stirring occasionally, until shrimp are opaque and cooked through, 2–3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and set aside until grits are cooked.

6. Plate shrimp and grits

To pot with grits, off heat, whisk in Parmesan, 3 tablespoons mascarpone, and butter cubes to combine (see recipe tip). Taste and add salt and pepper as desired. Divide grits between serving bowls (see recipe tip), then top with shrimp and cherry tomato sauce. Garnish with remaining basil and dig in!
