Dijon-Apple Chicken Thighs

with Roasted Brussels Sprouts and Sweet Potatoes

Roasting meat with vegetables on the same baking sheet is one of our favorite cheffy techniques. Not only is it super hassle-free, but the meat and the veggies infuse each other with tons of flavor. Tonight, we're roasting succulent chicken thighs with hearty Brussels sprouts and sweet potato. Then we drizzle everything with a sauce of apple, red onion, white wine, butter, and Dijon mustard for a cozy, tangy-sweet touch.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

We add water to the sauce at 2 different points for 2 different purposes. We first add water to the pan in Step 4 to help the apple soften and break down. Then, we add more water in Step 5 so the sauce achieves a pourable consistency.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve sweet potato lengthwise; cut crosswise into ½-inch half-moons. Pat spinach dry with paper towel. Slice off rounded sides of apple and cut into ½-inch cubes, discarding core. Halve Brussels sprouts lengthwise through roots. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Pat chicken dry with paper towel.

2. Roast sweet potato

Line 2 baking sheets with aluminum foil. On 1 prepared baking sheet, toss sweet potato with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange sweet potato in a single layer and roast until tender, 18–20 minutes.

3. Roast chicken and Brussels sprouts

While sweet potato roasts, on remaining sheet, toss Brussels sprouts with 1 teaspoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Arrange cut-side down in a single layer. Add chicken to sheet with Brussels sprouts, and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Roast (with sweet potato) until chicken is cooked through, and Brussels sprouts are tender, 14–16 minutes (see recipe tip).

4. Make Dijon-apple sauce

While Brussels sprouts and chicken roast, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion; sauté, stirring, until soft and translucent, 4–5 minutes. Add white wine and apple; sauté, stirring, until softened, 4–6 minutes. Stir in Dijon mustard and ¼ cup water; cook until liquid is almost fully evaporated and apple is tender, 1–2 minutes more.

5. Finish sauce and shred chicken

Add butter to pan with sauce, still over medium-high heat. Adding 1 tablespoon at a time, gradually stir in up to ¼ cup water until sauce is smooth and pourable (see recipe tip). Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired; remove pan from heat. Once chicken, Brussels sprouts, and sweet potato are roasted, transfer chicken to a plate. Shred chicken using 2 forks, or roughly chop.

6. Plate Dijon-apple chicken thighs

Add roasted sweet potato to sheet with Brussels sprouts, along with spinach; toss to combine. Divide roasted Brussels sprouts, sweet potato, and spinach between serving plates and top with shredded chicken thighs. Spoon over Dijon-apple pan sauce. Enjoy!
