Fall Vegetable Hash

with Roasted Red Peppers and Baked Eggs

Roasted until caramelized and tender, sweet potatoes, Brussels sprouts, and cauliflower are a fall trio we absolutely love. In this breakfast-for-dinner hash, we add eggs to the vegetables and bake, then bind everything together with tangy goat cheese. In Step 5, we suggest the perfect pairing for your dinner: a slightly sweet, medium-bodied amber ale.

Ingredients

- 2 sweet potatoes
- 10 ounces cauliflower florets
- 1 herb mix, divided
  - ⅛ ounce parsley
  - ⅛ ounce rosemary
- ¼ cup roasted red peppers
- 1 yellow onion
- 2 cloves garlic
- 6 ounces shredded Brussels sprouts
- ½ teaspoon smoked paprika
- 3 packets unsalted butter
- 1 ounce crumbled goat cheese
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 packets Cholula hot sauce

You'll need

- olive oil
- 2 eggs
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- aluminum foil
- baking sheet
- 10" medium high-sided ovenproof pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Making a pocket for each egg in the vegetables helps keep the whites in one place. To prevent egg shells in your dinner, you can also crack the eggs into individual bowls before adding to the vegetables. If there's any broken shell, you can scoop it out beforehand.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Cut sweet potatoes into ½-inch cubes. Cut cauliflower into 1 inch–wide florets, if needed. Roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Strip rosemary leaves and mince, discarding stems. Roughly chop roasted red peppers. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Line a baking sheet with foil.

2. Roast vegetables

On prepared baking sheet, toss Brussels sprouts, sweet potatoes, and cauliflower with smoked paprika, rosemary, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart, and roast until vegetables are tender and beginning to brown, 11–14 minutes.

3. Sauté onion and peppers

While vegetables roast, heat butter in a medium high-sided ovenproof pan over medium-high heat. When butter is foamy, add onion and ¼ teaspoon salt and sauté, stirring frequently, until softened, 6–8 minutes. Add roasted red peppers and garlic and cook until fragrant, 2–3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat.

4. Assemble vegetable hash

Once roasted, add vegetables to pan with onion and red peppers, still off heat, and stir to combine. Create 2 small, evenly spaced pockets in vegetables. Crack 1 egg into each pocket, nestling into vegetables (see recipe tip). Season with a pinch of salt and black pepper as desired.

5. Bake vegetable hash

Sprinkle goat cheese over hash in pan. Transfer to oven and bake until egg whites are just set, 6–8 minutes. Use the downtime to pour a glass of amber ale: The beer's bubbles and slightly bitter backbone will lift the richness of the cheese and vegetables off the palate. Subtle sweet, malty notes complement the caramelized edges of the vegetables.

6. Plate vegetable hash

Divide fall vegetable hash between serving bowls and garnish with Parmesan and parsley. Drizzle Cholula hot sauce over top (it's spicy, so feel free to skip or use half for milder heat). Enjoy!
