Garlic Butter Chicken

with Hickory-Roasted Carrots and Red Quinoa

Tonight, we're using hickory barbecue seasoning to add wood-fired flavor to roasted carrots. The warming, smoky, slightly sweet blend includes spices like salt, sugar, paprika, ground chiles, and garlic powder. Red quinoa laced with chives and white Cheddar adds chewy texture and eye-catching color, while garlic butter–basted chicken provides just the right amount of richness.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

If you're cooking with a helper tonight, they can toss the carrots and mash the garlic butter in Step 3, then stir the quinoa in Step 6.

Red quinoa is slightly chewier than white quinoa, so don't worry if the texture is a bit different. Cover your pot and be sure it's over medium-low heat so the water absorbs instead of evaporates and the quinoa cooks through.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Cook red quinoa

Preheat oven to 450°F (see recipe tip). Unwrap butter and place in a small bowl to soften at room temperature. In a medium pot, combine red quinoa, 1¾ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is absorbed, about 15 minutes (see recipe tip). Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes.

2. Prepare ingredients

While quinoa cooks, rinse all produce. Quarter carrots lengthwise. Thinly slice chives. Mince garlic. Line a baking sheet with foil for the next step.

3. Roast carrots and make garlic butter

On prepared sheet, toss carrots with hickory barbecue seasoning, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Arrange in a single layer; roast until lightly golden and tender, 12–14 minutes. Meanwhile, add garlic to bowl with softened butter; using a fork, mash to fully combine.

4. Sear chicken

Pat chicken very dry with paper towel (this will help the skin crisp up in the pan) and season all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken skin-side down and sear until skin is golden and easily lifts from pan, 6 minutes (it will finish cooking in the next step).

5. Finish chicken

With pan still over medium-high heat, flip chicken and top with garlic butter. Cook, repeatedly spooning over melted butter, until chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, about 6 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Transfer chicken to a plate, pour over garlic butter from pan, and set aside to rest.

6. Plate garlic butter chicken

While chicken cooks, to pot with quinoa, still off heat, stir in white Cheddar, half of chives, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Divide quinoa among serving plates. Top with hickory-roasted carrots, then garlic butter chicken. Garnish with remaining chives. Enjoy!
