Feta Burgers

with Mixed Green Salad

Salty, tangy feta is a brilliant addition to the classic burgers in tonight's recipe. The cheese is folded into the beef mixture with oregano and mustard for a savory patty with pockets of briny, creamy goodness throughout. Harissa in the mayo adds a smoky, slightly spicy kick we love. A kitchen helper can mix and shape the burgers and whisk together the dressing for the salad that's served alongside.

- ¼ pint grape tomatoes

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
12" large pan
aluminum foil

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Burger patties tend to puff up when cooked. Creating a shallow dimple in the center of each helps them cook evenly and keep their shape.

Resist the urge to move the burgers around in the pan as they sear so they can brown and cook evenly.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole. Rinse all produce. Roughly chop oregano and parsley leaves, discarding stems, and place in a medium bowl for making burgers. Roughly chop dill leaves, discarding stems, place in a large bowl, and set aside for Step 5.

2. Form burgers

To bowl with oregano and parsley, add feta, 1 packet mustard, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat beef dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 2 equal patties, about 1 inch thick—this is a great task for a kitchen helper. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each (see recipe tip).

3. Toast buns

Place buns cut-side down in a large pan over medium heat. Toast until light golden and warmed through, 2–3 minutes. Wrap buns in foil to keep warm until ready to serve, reserving pan for the next step.

4. Cook burgers

Heat 1 teaspoon olive oil in pan from buns over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add burgers and sear, without flipping, until browned on bottom, about 4 minutes (see recipe tip). Flip and continue searing until browned and medium rare, 3–4 minutes more. Transfer burgers to a plate and set aside to rest.

5. Make dressing and harissa mayo

While burgers cook, to large bowl with dill, add red wine vinegar, remaining mustard, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired and whisk to combine (a kitchen helper can do this part). In a small bowl, whisk together mayonnaise and up to half of harissa (it's spicy, so feel free to use less). Use remaining harissa for another use, like stirried into hummus for a snack.

6. Plate feta burgers

Pat mixed lettuces dry with paper towel and add to bowl with dressing, along with whole grape tomatoes, and toss to coat. Transfer bun bottoms to serving plates and top with feta burgers, then harissa mayo, then a handful of salad. Finish with bun tops. Serve with remaining salad. Dig in!
