Fresh Spaghetti

with Tomato Sauce and Burrata

A simple basil-infused tomato sauce is one of our favorite ways to showcase tender, fresh spaghetti. In this Encore Recipe, we're adding white wine to the sauce, along with a liberal dose of Parmesan cheese. Soft, ethereally creamy burrata is torn into pieces and draped over each serving, taking this glorious pasta to the next level.

Plated.

Ingredients

- ½ ounce basil, divided
- 1 yellow onion
- 2 cloves garlic
- ¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper
- ¼ cup white wine
- 2 cans diced tomatoes
- 1 cup tomato purée
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 pound fresh spaghetti
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- 8 ounces burrata

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" large pot
12" large high-sided pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

The basil sprig infuses the sauce with flavor, but doesn't hold up well to heat. We recommend discarding before adding the pasta.

Starchy pasta cooking water will give your sauce a perfect consistency and help it to cling to the noodles. Keep adding it until the sauce is silky—you may need more than you think.

Burrata is delicate, so be sure to handle it gently. Discard only the watery liquid from the container, not the cheese solids.

1. Prepare ingredients

Bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse basil and set aside 1 whole sprig for Step 3; roughly chop remaining leaves, discarding stems. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic.

2. Sauté aromatics

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large high-sided pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and cook until soft and translucent, 5–7 minutes. Add crushed red pepper (skip or use half for less heat) and garlic and cook until fragrant, 1 minute more.

3. Simmer tomato sauce

Add wine, diced tomatoes and their juices, tomato purée, sugar, and whole basil sprig to pan with onion. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer until sauce is reduced by half, 6–8 minutes. Stir in 1 teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Remove pan from heat.

4. Cook spaghetti

Season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in spaghetti and cook until al dente, about 3 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water, then drain and set aside until sauce is done.

5. Finish spaghetti

Remove and discard basil sprig from tomato sauce (see recipe tip), then return to medium heat. Add spaghetti to pan and cook, stirring, until coated and warmed through, 1–2 minutes. Add reserved pasta cooking water, 2 tablespoons at a time, until sauce thickens and clings to pasta (see recipe tip). Remove pan from heat and stir in Parmesan. Taste and add salt and black pepper as desired.

6. Plate spaghetti and burrata

Divide spaghetti among serving plates. Remove burrata from container, discarding excess liquid (see recipe tip), then tear into bite-size pieces and arrange over spaghetti. Garnish with chopped basil and dig in!
