Try to form the kofta into equal-sized logs to ensure they brown evenly. Flip them carefully when you sear, but don't worry if they break apart a little—they'll still be delicious over toasty naan.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef and lamb to 160°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Using a large pan or another heavy object, crush pistachios in their bag until finely ground. Rinse parsley and mint and pick leaves, discarding stems. Halve lemon. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice ½. Pat beef and lamb dry with paper towel.

2. Form Kofta

In a medium bowl, combine beef and lamb with ⅔ of spice mix and pistachios. Season with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper as desired. Using your hands, mix well. Divide mixture evenly and form into 4 logs, about 1-inch thick.

3. Sear Kofta

Heat 1 teaspoon olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add kofta and sear until browned on outside and medium rare, 2-3 minutes per side. Remove from pan and set aside to rest for about 5 minutes.

4. Make Salad

While kofta sear, whisk together juice of ½ lemon and 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium bowl. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed. Rinse spring mix and add to bowl along with parsley, mint, and as much onion as desired. Toss to combine.

5. Make Yogurt Sauce

Wipe pan from kofta clean, add naan over medium heat, and toast until charred, about 2 minutes per side. Meanwhile, add juice of remaining ½ lemon and remaining spice mix to container with Chobani yogurt and stir to combine. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

6. Plate Kofta

Spoon salad over charred naan. Add kofta and dollop over yogurt sauce. Skip the utensils and use naan as a big delicious scooper instead.
