

Indian Butter Chicken

with Sautéed Spinach and Toasted Naan

Rich and creamy Indian butter chicken (aka murgh makhani) is a Plated customer favorite, featuring tender chicken in a mildly spiced curry sauce. In this Popular Recipe, we marinate and bake the chicken in yogurt and tikka masala paste to make it extra moist, then toss it in a fragrant tomato curry laced with cream. It's paired with sautéed spinach, plus warm naan for scooping everything up together.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Yogurt infuses the chicken with moisture and rich flavor. If you have extra time, feel free to marinate up to 1 hour in the refrigerator to ensure extra-tender results.

If chicken releases moisture during baking, this is just proof that your marinade is working.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 475°F. In a large bowl, whisk yogurt, 1 tablespoon curry paste, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper to combine. Pat chicken dry with paper towel, cut into 1-inch pieces, and add to bowl with marinade. Turn to coat. Set aside to marinate at room temperature (see recipe tip). Rinse spinach. Trim and discard skin of ginger and mince. Mince garlic. Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice.

2. Bake chicken

Line a baking sheet with foil. Using a slotted spoon, remove chicken from marinade, allowing excess to drip off, and add to prepared baking sheet in a single layer. Bake until cooked through and no longer pink, 12–14 minutes (see recipe tip). Meanwhile, stack naan, wrap in foil, and place in oven to warm until ready to serve. Unwrap butter; set aside 2 packets for sautéing spinach in Step 5.

3. Cook sauce

Heat remaining 6 packets butter in a medium high-sided pan over medium heat. When butter is foamy, add onion. Cook until soft, 6 minutes. Stir in garlic, half of ginger, and remaining curry paste until fragrant, 1–2 minutes. Add tomato purée. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer until thickened and warmed through, 3–4 minutes. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Remove pan from heat.

4. Finish butter chicken

Once chicken has finished baking, return pan with sauce to medium heat. Once simmering, add chicken and stir to coat. Remove pan from heat and stir in ⅓ cup heavy cream (save remainder for tomorrow's coffee). Taste and add salt and pepper as desired, then cover to keep warm until ready to serve.

5. Sauté spinach

Heat reserved 2 packets butter in a large pan over medium heat. When butter is foamy, add shallot and remaining ginger and cook until softened, about 3 minutes. Pat spinach dry with paper towel, add to pan, and cook, stirring, until dark green and just wilted, about 3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate Butter Chicken

Transfer sautéed spinach and Indian butter chicken to serving bowls, spooning over any remaining sauce. Tear warm naan into pieces and serve alongside. Dig in!
