Summer Squash Tacos

with Refried Black Beans and Chimichurri Slaw

Chimichurri, an Argentine condiment, is one of our favorite all-purpose summer sauces: The combination of tangy red wine vinegar with garlic and herbs makes it an excellent pairing for both meats and vegetables. Here, we blend it with avocado to dress a crunchy snap pea slaw, then layer onto tortillas with refried beans and roasted squash. Dip the tacos in the remaining sauce for the perfect creamy, crunchy bite.

- 1 spice mix, divided
  - ¼ teaspoon ancho chile powder
  - ½ teaspoon ground cumin
  - ¼ teaspoon dried Mexican oregano
  - ½ teaspoon sweet paprika
- 2 teaspoons red wine vinegar
- 1 avocado
- 1 slaw mix
  - ½ cup shredded green cabbage
  - ½ cup shredded red cabbage
- 2 ounces sugar snap peas

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper aluminum foil baking sheet 6" small pot
blender or food processor (optional)

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

If you don't have a blender or a food processor, finely chop the herbs and garlic and combine in a bowl with the red wine vinegar and olive oil. Add the avocado and mash until smooth, then stir in water.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Cut squash lengthwise into ¼-inch slices, discarding ends. Roughly chop cilantro and parsley leaves and stems. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice, keeping lights and white greens separate from dark greens. Mince garlic. Drain and rinse black beans. Stack tortillas and wrap in foil.

2. Roast squash and warm tortillas

On a baking sheet, toss squash with half of spice mix, 1 tablespoon olive oil, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Arrange in a single layer and bake for 7 minutes. Then, add tortillas to oven and continue roasting until squash is tender and lightly browned and tortillas are warmed through, 5–8 minutes more.

3. Make refried beans

While squash roasts, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a small pot over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add scallion whites and light greens, half of garlic, and remaining spice mix. Cook, stirring, until fragrant, 3 minutes. Add black beans and ½ cup water. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring, until thickened, 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat.

4. Make avocado chimichurri

While black beans simmer, in a blender or food processor, combine red wine vinegar, cilantro, parsley, remaining garlic, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired, and pulse to combine (see recipe tip). Halve avocado, discarding pit. Scoop out flesh, discarding skin, and add to blender with chimichurri, along with 2 tablespoons water. Pulse until smooth and pourable.

5. Finish beans and make slaw

Using a large fork or potato masher, still off heat, mash black beans in pot until smooth. Season with ½ teaspoon salt. In a large bowl, combine slaw mix, snap peas, scallion dark greens, and half of avocado chimichurri and toss to coat.

6. Plate summer squash tacos

Divide tortillas between serving plates and layer with refried black beans, roasted squash, and chimichurri slaw. Serve with remaining avocado chimichurri for dipping. Dig in!
