Spicy Sambal Pork Stir-Fry

with Bok Choy and Cashews

Popular in Indonesian and Malaysian cuisines, sambal oelek is a sweet and spicy paste that combines ground chiles, brown sugar, and salt. Here, we're using it to add zip to a stir-fry of pork, green beans, and tender bok choy. It's all served over fluffy jasmine rice and garnished with crunchy cashews. If you're looking for a dish to spice up your week, this is it.

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Ginger skin can be trimmed with a knife, but if you have a metal spoon handy, this is even easier: Scrape the edge of the spoon along the outside of the ginger to quickly peel its delicate skin.

Sambal is pretty spicy, so how much is too much? If you love spicy food, use it all. If you like a little heat, use up to half.

USDA recommends cooking ground pork to 160°F.

1. Cook Rice

In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is fully evaporated, 10-12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then cover to keep warm until ready to serve.

2. Prepare Ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse all produce. Trim and discard ends of green beans (line up the ends to cut them all together). Halve bok choy lengthwise and rinse thoroughly—it tends to hide a lot of dirt between its leaves. Cut crosswise into 1-inch pieces, keeping bulbs and leaves separate. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice. Roughly chop cashews. Trim and discard skin of ginger (see Recipe Tip). Mince garlic. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice.

3. Cook Pork

Pat pork dry with paper towel. Heat ½ tablespoon canola oil in a medium high-sided pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add pork. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until cooked through and no longer pink, about 5 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer pork to a medium bowl and set aside. Discard excess fat, reserving pan.

4. Stir-Fry Vegetables

Wipe pan from pork clean and return to medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add whole ginger knob and onion. Cook, stirring, until onions are soft and browning, 3-4 minutes. Add green beans, bok choy bulbs, garlic, ½ tablespoon canola oil, and ½ teaspoon salt. Cook, stirring, until tender, 5 minutes more. Remove and discard ginger. Transfer vegetables to bowl with pork. Reserve pan.

5. Simmer Sauce

Add sambal oelek (see Recipe Tip) and half of chicken stock to pan from vegetables over medium-high heat. Simmer until reduced by half, 2-3 minutes. Return pork and stir-fried vegetables to pan and add bok choy leaves. Cook, stirring, until warmed through and combined, 1-2 minutes. Save remaining chicken stock for another recipe.

6. Plate Stir-Fry

Divide rice between serving dishes and top with spicy sambal pork stir-fry. Garnish with scallions and cashews. Dig in!
