

SERVING PLAN 4 SERVING PLAN

Spinach and Artichoke Turnovers

with Ricotta and Mozzarella

What's better than spinach-artichoke dip? Stuffing the dip inside golden, flaky puff pastry, of course. We combine four cheeses for the ultimate gooey, creamy filling, then stir in spinach and artichoke hearts. Enlist kitchen helpers to form the turnovers—it's as easy as folding the pastry over the filling and sealing the edges. A simple salad provides just the right break from all the cheese.

20–30 minutes 920 calories per serving

Plated.

Ingredients

- 2 packets cream cheese
- 3 ounces baby spinach
- 2 jars marinated artichoke hearts
- 2 ounces shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- 4 ounces ricotta cheese
- 8 5-inch squares puff pastry
- ¼ ounce parsley
- ½ pint cherry tomatoes
- 8 ounces baby arugula
- 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar
- 1 parchment paper

You'll need

- olive oil
- 1 egg
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

To quickly soften the cream cheese, place the packets between your hands for 1–2 minutes. The heat from your palms will help it soften.

It might seem daunting to divide the beaten egg in half, but don't worry if you add a tiny bit more or less. Save yourself the headache and eyeball it!

What to do with the remaining ricotta? Spread over your morning toast or use as a dip for fruit.

Questions? Email help@plated.com or call 855-525-2399. Visit plated.me/allergens for more information on dietary restrictions.

1830-5198-4P

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Set cream cheese aside to soften at room temperature (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Pat spinach dry with paper towel and roughly chop. Drain artichoke hearts, pat dry with paper towel (to keep moisture out of the filling), and roughly chop. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.

2. Prepare filling

In a large bowl, whisk 1 egg. Transfer half of egg to a small bowl and reserve for sealing turnovers (see recipe tip). Add mozzarella, Parmesan, cream cheese, and half of ricotta to large bowl with egg and stir to combine (see recipe tip). Stir in spinach and artichoke hearts (enlist a kitchen helper for this part). Season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

3. Fill turnovers

Add puff pastry squares to prepared baking sheet, spacing apart. Add ¼ cup filling to center of squares, leaving a 1-inch border. Lightly brush edges with some reserved egg (from small bowl), saving remainder for the next step. Gently fold 1 corner of each puff pastry square over filling to form a triangle, then gently press edges with your fingers to seal—this is another great task for a helper.

4. Bake turnovers

Cut a small slit on top of turnovers so steam can escape, then brush over remaining egg. Bake until puffed and golden brown, 14–17 minutes.

5. Make balsamic dressing

While turnovers bake, roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Halve tomatoes (you could also leave them whole to save time). Pat arugula dry with paper towel. In a separate large bowl, whisk together balsamic vinegar, ¼ cup olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add tomatoes and arugula to bowl with dressing, waiting to toss until ready to serve so the arugula stays crisp.

6. Plate turnovers

Use the remaining downtime to get ahead on dishes or set the table. Once baked, let spinach and artichoke turnovers cool for 5 minutes, then divide among serving plates, along with salad. Garnish with parsley and dig in!

Join the Plated community and post your #platedpics!