Spanish-Style Steak

with Fries and Herbed Aioli

Roasted red peppers are a super simple way to add a pop of flavor to any dish, making them one of our favorite pantry staples. Tonight, we're sautéing the charred peppers with onion, garlic, and sherry vinegar for a Spanish-inspired side to pair with seared steak. Oven-baked fries seasoned with a blend of smoked paprika and sun-dried tomato powder are served alongside with an easy take on herby aioli for dipping.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The stems of parsley are actually quite tender, so we've kept them for extra flavor and aroma. Chop as finely as possible for the best texture.

To achieve the best sear on your steak, be sure it is very dry and the pan is hot enough.

Cutting meat against the grain ensures tenderness. Find the direction of the grain (muscle fibers) and slice across it, rather than parallel.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145°F.

1. Bake fries

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve potatoes lengthwise; cut lengthwise into ¼-inch slices, then cut lengthwise again into ¼-inch fries. On a baking sheet, toss potatoes with Basque spice mix, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and bake until browned and tender, 20–25 minutes.

2. Prepare ingredients

While fries bake, finely chop parsley leaves and stems (see recipe tip). Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems, then mince. Drain roasted red peppers and thinly slice. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic.

3. Sear steaks

Pat steaks dry with paper towel (see recipe tip) and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and black pepper. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add steaks to pan and sear until browned on bottom, 4–6 minutes (steaks will finish cooking in the next step).

4. Finish steaks

Flip steaks, still over medium-high heat, scatter around roasted red peppers and onion, and continue cooking until steaks are medium rare and vegetables are beginning to soften, 4–6 minutes. Transfer steaks to a plate; set aside to rest, leaving peppers and onion in pan. Add garlic and half of herbs to pan, still over medium-high heat; cook, stirring, until flavors have melded, 2–4 minutes more. Remove pan from heat.

5. Finish peppers and make aioli

To pan with sautéed peppers and onions, still off heat, add sherry vinegar and 2 tablespoons olive oil and stir to combine. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. In a small bowl, stir mayonnaise, remaining herbs, and black pepper as desired to combine. Set herbed aioli aside for serving.

6. Plate Spanish-style steak

Cut steaks against the grain into ¼-inch slices (see recipe tip). Divide peppers and onion between serving plates and top with steak. Spread herbed aioli on plates or dollop on the side for dipping. Serve Spanish-style steak with fries and enjoy!
