Spinach and Brown Rice Bowls

with Crispy Prosciutto, Roasted Vegetables, and Goat Cheese

We love a good grain bowl, especially with nutty brown rice as the base. Golden raisins join the rice in the last minutes of boiling to plump and soften, bringing a sweet burst to roasted fennel and beets, goat cheese, and pan-crisped prosciutto. Red wine vinegar does double duty here: It pickles shallots for brightness, then becomes the tangy base for a simple Dijon and honey vinaigrette.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 1 shallot, divided
- 3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
- ½ cup brown rice
- 2 tablespoons golden raisins
- 1 bulb fennel
- 1 tablespoon roasted salted almonds
- 1 package steamed beets
- 2 ounces prosciutto
- 1 packet Dijon mustard
- 1 packet honey
- 3 ounces baby spinach
- 1 ounce crumbled goat cheese, divided

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
8" medium pot with lid aluminum foil baking sheet
12" large nonstick pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Removing excess moisture from the beets helps them brown evenly during roasting, and prevents temporary pink stains on your cutting board. To guard your hands too, hold each beet with a paper towel while cutting.

When adding the prosciutto to the pan, lay the slices down away from you to avoid a messy splatter. (In fact, this is a safe guideline anytime you're cooking in heated fat.)

1. Pickle shallot

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat (the amount of water isn't indicated because you'll drain the brown rice, just like pasta, when it's finished cooking). Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings, then place half in a medium bowl with red wine vinegar and ¼ teaspoon salt. Set aside to pickle until Step 5.

2. Cook brown rice

Season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in brown rice and cook until almost tender, 20–23 minutes (move on to Step 3—but don't forget to come back!). Then, add golden raisins to pot with rice and continue cooking until rice is tender and raisins are plump, 2–3 minutes more. Drain and return to pot, off heat, then cover to keep warm until ready to serve.

3. Prepare ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse all produce. Halve fennel bulb, cut core out in a wedge shape and discard, then slice as thinly as possible. Roughly chop almonds. Pat beets dry with paper towel (see recipe tip); halve and cut into ¼-inch half-moons. On a foil-lined baking sheet, toss fennel, beets, and remaining shallot with 2 teaspoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Roast until fennel is golden and beets are dark red, 15–18 minutes.

4. Crisp prosciutto

While vegetables roast, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add prosciutto in a single layer and cook, working in batches as needed, until crisp and curling at edges, 1–2 minutes per side (see recipe tip). Using tongs or a fork, transfer prosciutto to a paper towel–lined plate to drain.

5. Make Dijon vinaigrette

Using a slotted spoon, remove pickled shallot from bowl (leave pickling liquid behind) and transfer to a small bowl. To medium bowl with shallot pickling liquid, add Dijon mustard, honey, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Whisk to fully combine.

6. Plate brown rice bowls

Pat spinach dry with paper towel and add to pot with brown rice and raisins, along with Dijon vinaigrette, roasted vegetables, and half of goat cheese. Stir to combine, then divide between roomy serving bowls. Break crispy prosciutto into large pieces and scatter over. Garnish with almonds, pickled shallot, and remaining goat cheese. Dig in!
