Spicy Sausage and Sourdough Panade

with Kale, White Beans, and Gruyère

French panade is a slow-cooking meat stew with hearty hunks of bread. Toast tonight's sourdough croutons before they're stirred into the casserole with sausage, kale, and white beans—during baking, they'll maintain a crisp and golden edge while soaking up the flavorful broth and cheese.

- 4 ounces shredded Gruyère cheese

You'll need

olive oil
kosher salt
black pepper
aluminum foil baking sheet
12" large high-sided ovenproof pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Here's a cheffy trick for picking thyme leaves all at once: Pinch the stem near the top with 1 hand, then slide the fingers of your other hand down the length of the stem, from top to bottom. The leaves will come off easily.

It may seem counterintuitive to add water to the pan with the onion, but the liquid actually helps to slow cooking so the onion softens without burning.

USDA recommends cooking pork sausage to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Stack kale leaves and thinly slice, discarding long stems. Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems (see recipe tip), then mince. Cut or roughly tear sourdough into 1-inch pieces. Peel onions, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Drain and rinse white beans.

2. Make sourdough croutons

Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil. On prepared sheet, toss sourdough pieces with 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and bake until toasted and golden, 7–9 minutes.

3. Cook sausage

While croutons toast, heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a large high-sided ovenproof pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add sausage, garlic, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper. Cook, breaking up meat, until browned, 7–8 minutes. Stir in white beans, then remove pan from heat. Using a slotted spoon, transfer sausage and beans to a large bowl. Discard almost all excess fat from pan, leaving behind a thin layer for the next step.

4. Caramelize onions

Return pan from sausage to medium-high heat. When fat is sizzling, add onions and cook, stirring frequently, until light brown and softened, about 7 minutes. Add kale and ⅓ cup water and cook, stirring, until onions are golden, kale is wilted, and water has evaporated, 4–5 minutes more (see recipe tip). Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Remove pan from heat.

5. Bake panade

To pan with onions and kale, still off heat, stir in thyme, sourdough croutons, and sausage and white beans. Season with ½ tablespoon salt and pepper as desired. Pour over vegetable stock and scatter over Gruyère. Transfer sausage panade to oven and bake until cheese is melted and golden, tops of croutons are deeply browned, and flavors have melded, 12–14 minutes.

6. Plate panade

Allow spicy sausage and sourdough panade to cool and set for about 10 minutes (a great time to set the table), then divide among serving plates—or, bring the pan straight to the table and enjoy family-style. Bon appétit!
