Tarragon Chicken

with Spring Vegetable Gratin

We weren't surprised when this French-inspired dinner reached Popular Recipe status. Delicate pea shoots lend sweetness to a springy gratin, laced with nutty Gruyère cheese and baked with a crisp breadcrumb topping. It's the perfect foil for tender seared chicken in a bright tarragon–white wine pan sauce.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 6 ounces cremini mushrooms
- ⅛ ounce tarragon
- 1 shallot
- 1 ounce pea shoots
- 2 packets unsalted butter
- 1 cup peas
- 2 boneless chicken breasts
- 1 ounce shredded Gruyère cheese
- 8 ounces heavy cream
- ¼ cup panko breadcrumbs
- ½ ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- ¼ cup white wine
- 1 aluminum tin

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" medium pan
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Wiping mushrooms clean instead of rinsing prevents them from absorbing water. They won't brown well if they're too wet.

After cooking protein, adding liquid like wine will deglaze the pan, loosening any flavorful browned bits stuck to the bottom.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Wipe mushrooms clean with a damp paper towel and quarter (see recipe tip). Roughly chop tarragon leaves, discarding stems. Peel shallot and mince. Rinse pea shoots and roughly chop. Unwrap butter, cut into quarters, and chill in refrigerator until Step 5—keeping butter cold means it will melt slower, which helps it emulsify into your sauce without breaking, or separating. Reshape aluminum tin, if bent.

2. Sauté vegetables

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add mushrooms and sauté, stirring, until golden brown, about 5 minutes. Add peas and pea shoots. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and sauté, stirring, until bright green, about 1 minute more. Transfer vegetables to tin and set aside. Wipe pan clean and reserve for the next step.

3. Sear chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Return pan from vegetables to medium-high heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away—when you can easily feel heat, add chicken skin-side down. Sear until skin is golden and easily lifts from pan, 8–9 minutes. Flip and sear opposite side, 1 minute more. Transfer chicken to 1 half of a baking sheet. Reserve fat in pan, off heat.

4. Assemble and bake gratin

Add Gruyère to tin with vegetables, along with ⅓ cup heavy cream (save remainder for another use, like mashed potatoes). Toss to combine, then spread in an even layer. Scatter over breadcrumbs and Parmesan. Place tin on other half of baking sheeet with chicken. Transfer to oven and bake until gratin is bubbling and golden and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 12–15 minutes.

5. Make tarragon pan sauce

While chicken and gratin bake, place pan from chicken over medium heat. Add shallot and sauté, stirring, until soft and translucent, 1–2 minutes. Add white wine and cook, scraping up browned bits, until reduced by half, about 1 minute (see recipe tip). Stir in tarragon to combine, about 30 seconds more. Remove pan from heat and stir in chilled butter to melt. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate chicken

Transfer chicken to serving plates, spoon over tarragon pan sauce, and serve with spring vegetable gratin. Enjoy!
