Sticky Sesame Cauliflower

with Vegetable Fried Rice

Tonight's riff on a Chinese-American classic is sure to take a bite out of your takeout routine. Cauliflower florets are dipped in batter and baked until golden and crispy, then tossed in a salty and spicy sesame sauce that's soaked up by a bed of veggie-studded fried rice. We add a little flour to the sauce to naturally thicken it to that perfect sticky-sweet state, which always yields clean plates and big smiles.

Ingredients

¾ cup basmati rice
10 ounces cauliflower florets
2 scallions, divided
½ cup flour, divided
1 tablespoon sesame oil
1 spice mix
- ½ teaspoon garlic powder
- ½ teaspoon ground ginger
- ¼ teaspoon sesame seeds

1 packet honey
2 packets Sriracha
2 tablespoons rice wine vinegar
6 packets soy sauce, divided
½ cup shredded carrots
½ cup peas
1 parchment paper

You'll Need

canola oil kosher salt
6" small pot with lid
baking sheet
10" medium nonstick pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

To save time, try using a pair of kitchen scissors to cut multiple sauce packets open together.

When frying rice, be sure to press it down in the pan to crisp, undisturbed, for a few minutes.

If your cauliflower is stuck to the parchment after baking, no worries! Let it cool slightly, then carefully loosen with a spatula.

1. Cook Rice

Preheat oven to 450°F. In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium low, cover, and simmer until water is fully evaporated, 10-12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Then, fluff rice with a fork, and set aside uncovered to release steam, making it easier to fry in Step 5.

2. Prepare Ingredients

While rice cooks, line a baking sheet with parchment paper, and set aside. Cut cauliflower to ½-inch florets, if needed. Rinse scallions, trim and discard roots, and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Set aside ½ tablespoon flour, and reserve for making sesame sauce; place remaining flour in a large bowl for making batter.

3. Bread and Bake Cauliflower

Add ½ cup water to large bowl with flour, and whisk until fully combined to make batter. Add cauliflower to bowl and toss to fully coat with batter. Using a slotted spoon to allow excess batter to drip off, transfer cauliflower onto prepared baking sheet in a single layer. Bake until golden brown, 22-25 minutes. Meanwhile, rinse bowl from batter and dry, reserving for next step.

4. Make Sesame Sauce

Heat sesame oil in a medium nonstick pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add spice mix and cook until sesame seeds are lightly toasted, 1 minute. Stir in reserved ½ tablespoon flour to dissolve. Add honey, Sriracha (skip or use half for less heat), rice wine vinegar, and 4 packets soy sauce (see Recipe Tip). Cook until sauce thickens slightly, 2-3 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Transfer sesame sauce to bowl from batter. Rinse pan and wipe clean.

5. Fry Rice

Return pan from sauce to medium-high heat with 1½ tablespoons canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add scallion whites and light greens and sauté until soft, 1 minute. Stir in carrots and peas to warm through, 1-2 minutes. Add cooked rice and remaining soy sauce, stirring to coat. Press rice down in a single layer and cook, stirring halfway through and pressing down again, until golden and crisp in spots, 7-8 minutes total (see Recipe Tip).

6. Plate Cauliflower

Once golden brown, loosen cauliflower from parchment (see Recipe Tip), transfer to bowl with sesame sauce, and toss to fully coat. Divide vegetable fried rice between serving plates. Top with sticky sesame cauliflower, garnish with scallion dark greens, and dig in!
