Pork Gyros

with Greek Salad and Dill-Yogurt Sauce

Greek gyros are one of our all-time favorite sandwiches, combining tender meat with cool, tangy sauce and crunchy vegetables. Tonight, we're marinating pork chops in a blend of coriander, cumin, nutmeg, garlic, and oregano. They're seared, thinly sliced, and piled onto toasted naan breads with a crunchy salad and dollops of lemony dill-yogurt sauce to satisfy every flavor and texture craving.

  - ⅛ teaspoon ground coriander
  - ⅛ teaspoon ground cumin
  - ⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
  - ⅛ teaspoon ground nutmeg
  - ⅛ teaspoon onion powder
- 2 boneless pork chops
- 2 naan breads
- 1 ounce feta cheese
- 1 container nonfat Greek yogurt
- 2 tablespoons red wine vinegar

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
large resealable plastic bag (optional)
12" large pan
aluminum foil

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

If you want to go the extra mile, find the direction of the grain (muscle fibers) and slice across it, rather than parallel, to shave the meat gyro-style and ensure tenderness.

USDA recommends cooking pork to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Roughly chop dill, oregano, and parsley leaves, keeping herbs separate and discarding stems. Cut cucumber into ¼-inch dice. Finely chop tomato. Halve lemon. Mince garlic. Peel onion and cut into small dice.

2. Marinate pork chops

In a large bowl or resealable plastic bag, combine spice mix, oregano, garlic, ½ tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat pork chops dry with paper towel, add to marinade, and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate at room temperature until Step 5.

3. Toast naan

Heat a large pan over medium-high heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away from the pan—when you can easily feel heat, add naan, working in batches as needed. Toast until lightly charred and warmed through, about 2 minutes per side. Stack toasted naan and wrap in foil to keep warm until ready to serve, reserving pan for Step 5.

4. Make salad and yogurt sauce

In a separate large bowl, stir together juice of ½ lemon, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper to make dressing. Add feta, cucumber, tomato, and onion to bowl with dressing and toss to coat. Set Greek salad aside for serving. Add dill and 1 squeeze lemon to container with Greek yogurt and stir to combine. Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper. Set dill-yogurt sauce aside. Use any remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

5. Cook pork chops

Return pan from naan to medium-high heat with ½ tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add pork and sear until browned and cooked through, 3–5 minutes per side. Transfer to a plate and set aside to rest, 5 minutes. Add red wine vinegar and 3 tablespoons water to pan from pork, still over medium-high heat. Bring to a simmer and cook, scraping up browned bits from bottom of pan, until slightly thickened, 1 minute more. Remove pan from heat.

6. Assemble and plate gyros

Thinly slice rested pork against the grain (see recipe tip). Divide toasted naan between serving plates. Top with a spoonful of dill-yogurt sauce, then a handful of Greek salad, then sliced pork. Spoon over sauce from pan, garnish with parsley, and dig in!
