

Pork Gyros

with Marinated Feta and Roasted Bell Pepper

The secret to this customer-beloved Popular Recipe is in the sausage. Our spin on flavorful Greek gyros swaps out the traditional spit-roasted pork for sweet pork sausage, a flavor hack that simplifies seasoning with extra succulent results. The meat is formed into patties with herbs and garlic, then browned and piled atop toasted naan with roasted veggies and salty marinated feta.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The skin of the lemon (and other citrus fruits) is home to the highest concentration of aromatic oils, so chefs use zest to add bright, perfumy flavor and a little texture. It's easier and safer to zest the lemon before cutting and juicing. If you prefer less lemon flavor, feel free to skip the zest—your marinated feta will be equally delicious.

USDA recommends cooking pork sausage to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve cucumber lengthwise; cut crosswise into ¼-inch half-moons. Halve bell peppers lengthwise, discarding seeds and stems; cut into ¼-inch strips. Roughly chop basil, dill, oregano, and parsley leaves, keeping separate and discarding stems. If you have a zester, rinse 1 lemon and zest up to ½ (see recipe tip). Halve lemons. Mince garlic. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice.

2. Roast bell peppers and onion

On a baking sheet, toss bell peppers and onion with half of parsley, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart. Roast until vegetables are tender and browned, 10–12 minutes.

3. Form and cook patties

While vegetables roast, in a medium bowl, combine garlic, half of oregano, and remaining parsley, then add sausage. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 12 equal patties, about 1-inch thick (this is a great task for a kitchen helper!). Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add patties. Cook until browned and no longer pink, 3–4 minutes per side.

4. Marinate feta

While patties cook, place feta in a separate medium bowl, then add dill, lemon zest (if using), juice of 1 lemon (or use less, if desired), remaining oregano, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ tablespoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Turn to thoroughly coat, then set aside to marinate until ready to serve.

5. Toast naan and make salad

Stack naan breads, wrap in foil, and place in oven to warm through, 5–8 minutes. Meanwhile, pat arugula dry with paper towel and place in a large bowl, then add cucumber and basil. Cut remaining lemons into wedges.

6. Plate pork gyros

Transfer 3 tablespoons marinade from bowl with feta to bowl with salad, and toss to coat. Divide toasted naan among serving plates and top with roasted bell peppers and onion, then a handful of salad, then patties. Finish with marinated feta. Serve with remaining salad and lemon wedges for squeezing over, if desired. Opa!
