Persian Chicken

with Carrots and Jeweled Rice

For tonight's Persian-inspired recipe, chicken breasts are marinated in yogurt for extra moisture and richness. Then, they're crusted with flour, cumin, dried mint, and garlic powder and seared until golden. The meat is served over a bed of basmati rice that's infused with a cinnamon stick for warmly-spiced flavor, then "bejeweled" with currants and pistachios for mild sweetness and crunch.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

You can also leave the pistachios in the bag and gently crush with the bottom of a heavy pan.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Place Greek yogurt in a large bowl or resealable plastic bag. Pat chicken dry with paper towel, add to yogurt, and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate at room temperature. Meanwhile, rinse all produce. Roughly chop pistachios (see recipe tip). Cut carrots crosswise on a diagonal into ½-inch pieces. Roughly chop parsley leaves; discard stems. Cut lemon into wedges for serving. Peel onion; cut into small dice.

2. Toast rice

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and sauté, stirring, until tender, about 2 minutes. Add rice and cook, stirring frequently, until toasted and translucent, about 2 minutes more.

3. Cook jeweled rice

To pot with rice, add cinnamon stick, 1 cup water, and ½ teaspoon salt; bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is fully absorbed, 10–12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes (move on to Step 4, but don't forget to come back). Remove and discard cinnamon stick; fluff rice with a fork. Stir in currants, pistachios, and half of parsley. Cover again; set aside.

4. Roast carrots

While rice cooks, on a baking sheet, toss carrots with half of spice mix, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart, and roast until tender and slightly browned, 12–15 minutes.

5. Crust chicken

While carrots roast, on a large plate, combine flour, remaining spice mix, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Remove chicken from yogurt, wiping off as much as possible (though it infused the meat with moisture and rich flavor, wiping off the yogurt before dredging helps the flour stick to the chicken, ensuring an evenly browned crust). Season chicken all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper, then dredge in spiced flour, shaking off excess.

6. Cook and plate chicken

Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken; sear until crust is browned and chicken is no longer pink, 5–6 minutes per side. Transfer jeweled rice to serving plates and top with Persian chicken and carrots. Garnish with remaining parsley; serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over. Enjoy!
