

Pound Cake Parfaits

with Blueberry Compote and Cream

Skip the hard work and enjoy dessert anyway. Why not? Parfait layers make for a pretty presentation with minimal effort. These bring together freshly whipped cream, buttery pound cake, and lemony blueberry compote. #Goals

Ingredients

- 1 lemon
- 1 cup blueberries
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- ⅓ cup heavy cream
- 2 teaspoons powdered sugar
- 4 ounces pound cake

6" small pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

You'll want to allow your compote to cool so that it doesn't melt the cool whipped cream in your parfaits.

Place your bowl and whisk in the refrigerator. Chilled tools make whipping a lot easier! It takes a bit of elbow grease, but it'll be worth it—just keep going.

1. Make Blueberry Compote

Halve lemon. Place blueberries, and granulated sugar in a small pan over medium heat and cook until blueberries begin to break down, sugar is dissolved, and mixture is slightly thickened, about 5 minutes. Remove pot from heat. Stir in 1 squeeze lemon juice. Set aside to cool completely (see Recipe Tip).

2. Make Whipped Cream

While blueberry compote cools, whisk together heavy cream and powdered sugar in a medium bowl until slightly thickened and soft peaks form, about 3 minutes. Place in refrigerator to chill until ready to use.

3. Assemble Parfaits

Break pound cake into bite-size pieces and place ½ into 2 glasses or bowls, dividing evenly. Add ½ of blueberry compote, then add ½ of whipped cream, dividing evenly. Repeat with remaining pound cake, remaining blueberry compote, and remaining whipped cream.

4. Plate Parfaits

Dig into parfaits immediately or chill in refrigerator for up to 1 hour if you can wait that long.
