Persian Beef

with Brown Rice, Carrots, and Fried Almonds

Persian cuisine is all about warm, heady spices and subtle sweet notes. Here, we use advieh (a traditional spice blend made with cardamom and cinnamon) to season browned beef. Sautéed carrots, caramelized onions, and dried cranberries add the sweet element. Finish with butter-fried almonds for a golden garnish and welcome crunch.

Brown rice hack: The amount of water isn't indicated because you'll drain the rice, just like pasta, when it's finished cooking.

Keep an eye on the pan and stir frequently to prevent the almonds from burning.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse all produce. Cut carrots crosswise on a diagonal into ¼-inch slices (this helps them cook through evenly and creates a nice presentation). Finely chop parsley leaves and stems. Peel onions, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic.

2. Cook rice and sauté aromatics

Season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in rice and cook until tender, 22–25 minutes (see recipe tip). Drain and return to pot, off heat, then cover to keep warm until ready to serve. Meanwhile, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add half of onions and sauté, stirring, until soft and translucent, about 5 minutes. Add garlic and sauté, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute more.

3. Cook beef

Pat beef dry with paper towel. To pan with aromatics, still over medium-high heat, add advieh spice mix, beef, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up meat, until browned, about 5 minutes. Then, stir in white wine and bring to a boil. Cook, stirring, until liquid is reduced by half, 1–2 minutes more. Using a slotted spoon, transfer beef to a bowl and wipe pan clean for next step.

4. Fry almonds

Return pan from beef to medium-high heat with butter and ¼ teaspoon salt. When butter is foamy, add almonds and fry, stirring frequently, until golden and fragrant, 2–3 minutes (see recipe tip). Using a slotted spoon, transfer almonds to a plate, leaving butter behind in pan for the next step.

5. Finish Persian beef

To pan from almonds, still over medium-high heat, add carrots and remaining onions and sauté, stirring, until softened, 5–6 minutes. Stir in dried cranberries, half of parsley, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Remove pan from heat, add beef, and stir to combine.

6. Plate Persian beef

Divide brown rice between serving plates and top with Persian beef and carrots. Garnish with fried almonds and remaining parsley. Dig in!
