Greek Lamb Meatballs

with Lemon Broth and Rainbow Chard

To thicken sauces, stews, and puddings in half the time, chefs often create a slurry of cornstarch and liquid in lieu of flour. This way, they don't have to wait for the raw flour taste to cook out. Tonight, we're using this trick to add silkiness to a lemony broth with chicken stock, peas, and chard—the perfect textural complement to rich beef and lamb meatballs.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Stack chard and thinly slice crosswise, keeping stems and leaves separate. Cut carrots crosswise on a diagonal into ½-inch slices. Roughly chop dill leaves, discarding stems. Halve lemons. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil.

2. Form meatballs

In a large bowl, combine spice mix, ⅓ cup onion, 1 egg, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat beef and lamb dry with paper towel and add to bowl with aromatics. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 15 equal balls, about 1 inch thick (see recipe tip). Arrange meatballs on prepared baking sheet, spacing apart as much as possible.

3. Roast meatballs and carrots

On a separate baking sheet, toss carrots and chard stems with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Transfer both baking sheets to oven and roast until carrots are tender and meatballs are golden brown and cooked through, 9–12 minutes.

4. Prepare broth and slurry

While meatballs cook, heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium pot over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add remaining onion and cook until softened, 3–4 minutes. Add chicken stock and 1½ cups water and bring to a boil over high heat. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, whisk together cornstarch and juice of 1½ lemons until dissolved. Save remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

5. Finish lemon broth

Once broth is boiling, still over medium-high heat, gradually pour lemon-cornstarch slurry into pot, whisking continuously (be careful to avoid splattering!). Continue whisking until thickened, 1 minute more, then immediately remove pot from heat. Stir in peas, chard leaves, and roasted carrots and chard stems. Season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate Greek lamb meatballs

Divide lemon broth among serving bowls. Top with Greek lamb meatballs, garnish with dill, and dig in!
