Grilled Steak and Vegetable Kebabs

with Farro, Goat Cheese, and Basil

We're gearing up for summer with tonight's grilled steak kebabs, layered with plenty of colorful veggies. Before grilling, the steak marinates with olive oil and chimichurri spices—a blend made with garlic, paprika, and tomatillos. We drizzle the finished kebabs with more of the chimichurri oil and serve over a bed of basil and goat cheese–laced farro.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

If you don't have a grill or grill pan, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat in Step 4. Add kebabs and cook, working in batches and adding oil as needed, 2–4 minutes total.

Perfectly cooked farro is tender, but still has some chew to it. Taste your farro before you drain it; if you prefer a more tender consistency, keep cooking a few minutes more.

Enlist a helper to make the chimichurri oil in Step 1, assemble the kebabs in Step 4, and tear the basil and finish the farro in Step 5.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145°F.

1. Marinate steaks

Preheat grill to medium-high heat (see recipe tip). Bring a small pot of water to a boil over high heat. In a large bowl, whisk together chimichurri spice, ¼ cup olive oil, 1 teaspoon salt, and black pepper; transfer half to a small bowl and set aside. Pat steaks dry with paper towel and cut into 1-inch pieces; add to large bowl with remaining chimichurri oil and toss to coat. Set aside to marinate until Step 4.

2. Cook farro

While steaks marinate, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in farro and cook until tender but still chewy, 12–14 minutes (see recipe tip). Drain farro and return to pot, off heat. Cover and set aside until Step 5.

3. Prepare ingredients

While farro cooks, fill a baking dish or rimmed baking sheet up to 1 inch with water and submerge skewers (so they don't burn on the grill). Rinse all produce. Cut zucchini crosswise into ½-inch rounds, discarding ends. Halve bell peppers lengthwise, discarding seeds and stems; cut into 1-inch pieces. Peel onions, quarter, and separate layers. Remove steaks from marinade, allowing excess to drip off.

4. Assemble and grill kebabs

Alternating pieces, thread whole grape tomatoes, steak, zucchini, bell pepper, and onion evenly onto skewers. If using a grill pan, place it over medium-high heat now. When grill is just smoking, steak and vegetable kebabs and cook, rotating halfway through, until vegetables are charred and steak is medium rare, 2–4 minutes total. Remove from grill and set aside to rest for about 5 minutes.

5. Finish farro

While kebabs grill, roughly chop or tear basil leaves, discarding stems. To pot with cooked farro, still off heat, crumble over goat cheese. Add half of basil and toss to combine. Taste and add salt and black pepper as desired.

6. Plate steak kebabs

Divide goat cheese and basil farro among serving plates. Top with steak and vegetable kebabs and drizzle over reserved chimichurri oil. Garnish with remaining basil and enjoy!
