- 1 yellow onion
- 1 clove garlic
- 2 teaspoons harissa
- 1 cup tomato purée
- 8 ounces heavy cream
- ¼ cup panko breadcrumbs
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese

You'll need

baking sheet

10" medium high-sided pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Raw spaghetti squash can be tough to cut into. If needed, pierce squash all over with a fork and microwave in 30-second intervals to soften slightly before halving.

Save remaining cream for pasta night! Add a splash to your next batch of tomato sauce for rich and silky texture.

If squash shells break, serve squash in a bowl and top with filling and breadcrumbs—it'll be just as delicious!

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Line a baking sheet with foil. Rinse all produce. Pat spinach dry with paper towel. Halve spaghetti squash lengthwise (see recipe tip) and scoop out and discard seeds, then place on prepared baking sheet. Thinly slice sun-dried tomatoes. Roughly chop oregano leaves, discarding stems. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Mince garlic.

2. Roast spaghetti squash

On baking sheet, drizzle 1 tablespoon olive oil over cut sides of squash and season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Arrange cut-side down and roast until tender, 25–35 minutes. (Spaghetti squash can vary in size, hence the wider time range for roasting. Gently squeeze the outsides—if you feel resistance, it needs more time). Then, set aside to cool slightly until Step 5.

3. Make squash filling

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium high-sided pan over medium. When oil is shimmering, add sun-dried tomatoes and onion and sauté until softened, 3–4 minutes. Add harissa and garlic and cook until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in tomato pureé until warmed through, about 2 minutes. Stir in spinach to wilt, 1–2 minutes more. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Remove from heat and stir in ¼ cup cream (see recipe tip).

4. Make herbed breadcrumbs

While filling cooks, in a medium bowl, stir together breadcrumbs, Parmesan, oregano, and 1 tablespoon olive oil. Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

5. Shred and stuff spaghetti squash

Once squash is cool enough to handle, using a fork or tongs, rake squash flesh to create spaghetti-like strands. Add to pan with filling, keeping squash skins on baking sheet. Add feta to pan with squash. Stir to combine. Taste and season with salt and pepper. Return filling to squash skins, dividing evenly (see recipe tip). Top with herbed breadcrumbs. If you have extra filling, save it for serving!

6. Finish and plate squash

Return Greek stuffed spaghetti squash to oven and roast until golden brown, about 10 minutes. Divide between serving plates (we measure squash by weight, so even if each person doesn't receive exactly 1 half, they'll receive the same amount of squash). Dig in!
