Smoked Salmon "BLTs"

with Arugula, Goat Cheese, and Whole-Grain Mustard

We have to admit: Our chefs struggled to come up with a good name for the addictive spread on tonight's faux BLTs. Goat cheese mustard? Mustard goat cheese? Goat cheese–mustard spread? Whatever it is, it's bright and tangy, with delightful little pops from the mustard seeds—and still creamy enough to replace the classic mayo swipe. Now, maybe we can swap that bacon habit for smoked salmon, too...

Recipe tips

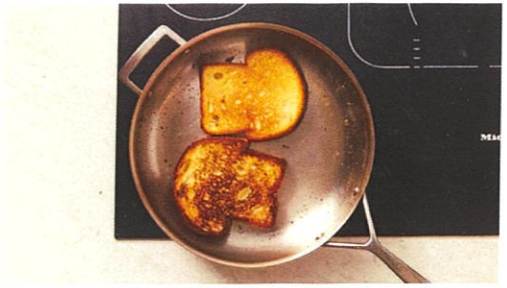

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Hack this into a no-cook recipe: We love the golden color and delicate crunch of pan-toasted bread, but if you'd prefer not to wash a pan, use a toaster instead.

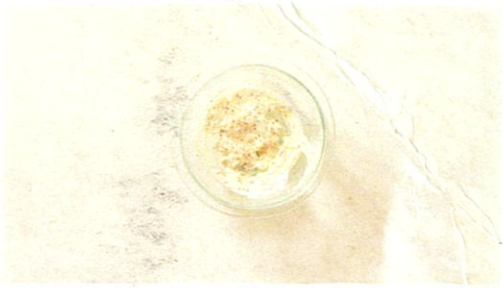

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Thinly slice tomato into rounds (try using a bread knife or other serrated blade to avoid squishing the slices too much). Mince garlic and, still on cutting board, sprinkle over ⅛ teaspoon salt. Using a large knife, carefully scrape over mixture at a 45° angle, pressing down. Repeat until garlic is broken down and a paste forms, then transfer garlic paste to a small bowl.

2. Toast brioche

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add brioche slices and toast, working in batches and adding more oil in between as needed, until golden, 1–2 minutes per side (see recipe tip). Transfer brioche to a clean, dry surface.

3. Make spread

To bowl with garlic paste, add goat cheese, whole-grain mustard, and 1 tablespoon warm water. Whisk until smooth and fluffy, 1–2 minutes. Set aside.

4. Dress arugula

In a large bowl (big enough for the salad), whisk together everything bagel spice mix, white wine vinegar, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Pat arugula dry with paper towel, add to bowl with dressing, and toss to coat.

5. Assemble sandwiches

Spread 1 side of toasted brioche slices with mustard–goat cheese spread. Top 2 slices with a small handful of dressed arugula. Layer with smoked salmon, then tomato. Close with remaining brioche, spread-side down.

6. Plate smoked salmon "BLTs"

Halve sandwiches on a diagonal, then transfer to serving plates. Divide remaining arugula between plates. Buon appetito!
