Spaghetti Bolognese

with Broccolini and Parmesan

We're giving traditional slow-simmered Bolognese, an Italian meat sauce, an any night of the week upgrade with tonight's recipe. Beef browns with aromatics, then simmers with tomato paste (for concentrated flavor), crushed tomatoes, and red wine. We stir in broccolini (broccoli's mild, tender cousin), then finish with Parmesan. Your friend can tear the herbs and toss everything together.

- ⅛ ounce oregano
- 2 cloves garlic
- 12 ounces ground beef
- 6 ounces spaghetti
- ¼ cup red wine
- 1 can crushed tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese, divided

You'll need

- olive oil
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- 10" large pot
- 10" medium high-sided pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Covering the water helps it boil faster and prevents it from evaporating before you're ready to cook the pasta.

Using a slotted spoon will drain off any excess fat from the beef so it doesn't end up in your Bolognese. Pouring the fat down the drain might damage your pipes—instead, pour it into a heatproof container once it's cooled slightly, and dispose in the garbage.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Bring a large covered pot of water to a boil over high heat (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Trim and discard woody bottoms of broccolini, then cut crosswise into 1-inch florets with long stems (halve lengthwise through thicker stems as needed). Roughly chop or tear oregano leaves, disarding stems (a friend can do this part). Mince garlic. Pat beef dry with paper towel.

2. Cook beef

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium high-sided pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add beef, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, about 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Using a slotted spoon, transfer beef to a plate (see recipe tip). Discard almost all fat from pan, leaving a thin layer for Step 4.

3. Cook spaghetti and broccolini

While beef cooks, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in spaghetti and cook 5–6 minutes. Then, stir in broccolini and cook until pasta is al dente and broccolini is tender and bright green, 3–4 minutes more. Drain and return to pot, off heat.

4. Cook Bolognese

Return pan from beef to medium-high heat. When fat is shimmering, add oregano and garlic. Sauté, stirring, about 1 minute. Add wine to pan and cook, scraping up browned bits from bottom of pan, until mostly evaporated, about 2 minutes. Add crushed tomatoes, tomato paste, beef, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil. Cook, stirring frequently, until liquid is reduced by half, 4–6 minutes.

5. Finish spaghetti Bolognese

Once thickened, add Bolognese to pot with spaghetti and broccolini, still off heat. Add half of Parmesan and toss to combine (this is another great thing for a friend to do). Taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate spaghetti Bolognese

Divide spaghetti Bolognese between serving bowls. Garnish with remaining Parmesan and dig in!
