Pork Chop Pretzel Rolls

with Creamy Mustard and Gruyère

Nutty whole-grain mustard is a quintessential match for pork, easily cutting through its rich, super-savory flavor. Another good friend of mustard? A big, warm, soft pretzel. Here, pounded and seared pork chops are stacked on toasted pretzel rolls with mustard sauce, quick-pickled shallots, and Gruyère cheese. This sandwich is at once creamy, melty, chewy, crisp—and incredibly satisfying.

- meat mallet (optional)
- 12" large pan
- baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Rub a little water on your work surface, under the bottom piece of plastic wrap, to keep it from shifting while you pound the pork chops. Try to make them as thin and even as possible, but don't stress if they tear—they're sliced and stacked on rolls anyway!

Scooping out the insides of your pretzel rolls makes room for all of the toppings and holds everything in place. Feel free to enjoy as a pre-dinner snack.

USDA recommends cooking pork to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Pat lettuce dry with paper towel. Pick dill leaves, discarding stems. Halve tomatoes. Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings, then place in a large bowl. Pour over white wine vinegar and season with ¼ teaspoon salt, then set aside to pickle until Step 4. In a small bowl, stir together mayonnaise and mustard to make creamy mustard.

2. Pound pork chops

Pat pork chops dry with paper towel and place between 2 large pieces plastic wrap (see recipe tip). Using a meat mallet or heavy pan, pound to ¼-inch thickness. Season pork all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

3. Sear pork chops

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add pork and sear, working in batches and adding oil in between as needed, until browned and cooked through, 3–4 minutes per side. Transfer pork to a cutting board and set aside to rest for about 5 minutes. Meanwhile, slice pretzel rolls open horizontally; using your hands, scoop out some of the soft insides (see recipe tip).

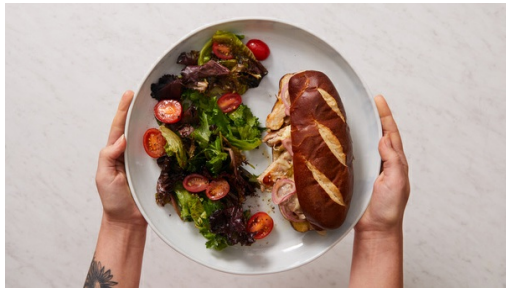

4. Assemble rolls

Once rested, cut pork chops into ¼-inch slices. Arrange rolls cut-side up on a baking sheet, and spread evenly with creamy mustard. Using a slotted spoon, top roll bottoms with pickled shallot (leaving pickling liquid behind in bowl for the next step). Layer with sliced pork and Gruyère cheese. Finish with roll tops. Bake until rolls are golden and cheese has melted, 4–5 minutes.

5. Make salad

While rolls bake, to bowl with reserved shallot pickling liquid, add honey, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Whisking continuously, slowly add 3 tablespoons olive oil until fully combined. Add lettuce, dill, and tomatoes to bowl with dressing and toss to coat.

6. Plate pretzel rolls

Serve pork chop pretzel rolls with salad, and dig in!
