Moo Shu Wraps

with Purple Sweet Potato, Bell Pepper, and Mushrooms

Chinese takeout tastes even better when made at home, especially with tonight's super speedy recipe. Our version of moo shu (stir-fried vegetables wrapped in thin pancakes) uses bell pepper, mushrooms, and roasted purple sweet potatoes. Warmed flour tortillas stand in for the pancakes and help this dinner come together even faster. A friend can help assemble the wraps before serving or at the table.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Wiping mushrooms clean instead of rinsing prevents them from absorbing water. They won't brown well if they're too wet.

Move the vegetables to the edges of the pan so the eggs can cook through in the center, then stir to combine. This will keep your moo shu filling from becoming one big egg scramble, and save an extra pan.

1. Roast purple sweet potato

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse purple sweet potato and halve lengthwise; cut lengthwise into ¼-inch slices, then cut lengthwise again into ⅛-inch fries. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper, add sweet potato, and toss with ½ tablespoon canola oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper. Arrange in a single layer and roast until golden brown and crisp, 15–20 minutes. Remove from oven and toss with half of sesame seeds.

2. Prepare ingredients

While sweet potato roasts, wipe mushrooms clean with a damp paper towel (see recipe tip); cut into ¼-inch slices. Rinse remaining produce. Halve bell pepper lengthwise, discarding seeds and stem; cut lengthwise into ¼-inch strips, then halve crosswise. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice on a diagonal, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Mince garlic. In a small bowl, whisk 2 eggs.

3. Cook vegetables

Heat sesame oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add garlic and scallion whites and light greens; sauté until softening, 1–2 minutes. Increase heat to high. Add carrots, mushrooms, and bell pepper; cook, stirring frequently, until softened, 3–4 minutes.

4. Warm tortillas

While vegetables cook, stack tortillas, wrap in foil, and place in oven (with purple sweet potato) to warm through for 4–6 minutes.

5. Finish moo shu filling

While tortillas warm, to pan with vegetables, still over high heat, stir in soy sauce and sherry vinegar and cook until liquid is reduced by half, 1–2 minutes. Reduce heat to medium high. Push vegetables to edges of pan. Pour eggs into center and scramble, stirring frequently, until cooked through, 1–2 minutes, then stir into vegetables (see recipe tip). Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Remove pan from heat.

6. Plate moo shu wraps

Divide warmed tortillas between serving plates. Spread about 1 teaspoon hoisin sauce over each tortilla, then top evenly with moo shu filling and roasted purple sweet potato (this is a great task for a friend). Garnish with scallion dark greens and remaining sesame seeds. Dig in!
