New England-Style Pollock Chowder with Garlic Bread

Total Time: 30-40 minutes Calories per Serving: 690

Serves: 2 people

Chowder is a New England classic. Our version uses pollock, a member of the cod family that's found in the North Atlantic. A side of crusty garlic bread for dipping makes this meal extra cozy.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Rinse potato and cut into ½-inch dice. Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems. Rinse pollock and pat dry with paper towel.

2. Sauté Vegetables

Heat 2 packets butter in a medium pot over medium-high heat. When butter is foamy, add onion, potato, and thyme and sauté, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are softening, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour and cook until fully combined, 1-2 minutes.

3. Simmer Chowder

Add white wine, vegetable broth, and ¼ cup clam juice to pot with vegetables and stir to combine. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer, stirring, until chowder is thickened, about 6 minutes. Save remaining clam juice for use in another recipe.

4. Toast Garlic Bread

Mince garlic. Halve ciabatta lengthwise. Spread remaining butter over cut sides, then sprinkle over garlic. Place cut-side up on a baking sheet, transfer to oven, and toast until golden, 7-10 minutes.

5. Cook Pollock

When chowder is thickened, season pollock all over with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper and add to pot, nestling in. Cover pot, increase heat to medium high, and simmer until pollock is opaque, 5-7 minutes. Uncover and stir in heavy cream. Cook until warmed through, about 1 minute more. Remove pot from heat. Using a wooden spoon, gently break pollock into large pieces. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

6. Plate Pollock Chowder

Enjoy pollock chowder with garlic bread alongside for sopping up all the flavors.

Mince the garlic as finely as possible before you sprinkle it onto your ciabatta. Doing so helps to incorporate the flavor with the butter as the bread toasts.
