Chicken Horiatiki

with Greek Yogurt–Feta Sauce and Pita Chips

Tonight, we're bringing back one of our all-time favorite salads, then adding a few special touches. Cucumber, tomato, red onion, pickled pepperoncini, and Kalamata olives are tossed in a red wine vinaigrette to create the classic Greek horiatiki. To complement the crunchy textures, there's a creamy sauce of Greek yogurt, salty feta, and lemon, plus homemade pita chips for scooping it all up.

- ¼ cup sliced pepperoncini

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" medium pan
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Searing chicken in a dry pan might sound crazy, but there's good reason: Its natural fat slowly melts from beneath the skin, creating a golden crust without adding oil or butter.

Raw red onion has a strong flavor, so only use as much as desired.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Season chicken

Preheat oven to 450°F. Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

2. Cook chicken

Heat a medium pan over medium heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away—when you can easily feel heat, add chicken skin-side down (see recipe tip). Sear until skin is golden and easily lifts from pan, 8–9 minutes. Flip and sear opposite side until cooked through and no longer pink, about 7 minutes more. Transfer chicken to a plate, skin-side up, and set aside to rest until Step 6.

3. Prepare ingredients

While chicken cooks, stack pita breads and quarter. Rinse all produce. Halve cucumber lengthwise, then cut crosswise into ¼-inch half-moons. Halve tomatoes. Roughly chop dill and oregano leaves, discarding stems. Halve lemon. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice up to half (save remainder for another recipe).

4. Make vinaigrette and toast pita

In a large bowl, whisk together red wine vinegar, dill, oregano, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Add onion (see recipe tip) and stir to coat; set aside. Place pita wedges on a baking sheet and toss with 2 teaspoons olive oil and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Arrange in a single layer and bake until golden and toasted, 7–9 minutes.

5. Make Greek yogurt–feta sauce

While pita toasts, in a small bowl, whisk together Greek yogurt, juice of ½ lemon, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine (save remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water). Add feta. Using a fork, mash to combine until sauce is smooth.

6. Plate chicken horiatiki

To bowl with onion, add olives, pepperoncini, cucumber, and tomatoes; toss to coat. Shred chicken using 2 forks or roughly chop. Add chicken to bowl with horiatiki and toss to combine. Divide pita chips and chicken horiatiki between serving plates. Drizzle over Greek yogurt–feta sauce and enjoy!
