Peppercorn Gravy Meatloaf

with Sautéed Kale

Green peppercorns are the unripe berries of the pepper plant, and must be submerged in brine to preserve their soft, fresh, mild state (otherwise, when dried and oxidized, they become the more pungent black peppercorns we use for table seasoning). Tonight's fancified meatloaves are smothered with a rich onion gravy studded with the tender green peppercorns, and served with lemony kale.

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

This recipe calls for 2 kinds of pepper: We've sent you milder whole green peppercorns for making the gravy; black pepper refers to the dried and ground variety you have at home (feel free to use sparingly, or not at all, to let the gravy do all the talking).

Here's an idea for the remaining lemon: Whisk juice and honey into olive oil for a bright salad dressing.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse kale, trim and discard long stems, then thinly slice leaves crosswise. Halve lemon. Peel onion, halve, and cut 1 half into small dice; thinly slice remainder. Mince garlic.

2. Sauté Aromatics

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add diced onion and sauté, stirring, until soft and translucent, about 5 minutes. Reduce heat to medium and stir in Worcestershire sauce and tomato paste. Cook until bright red and fragrant, about 1 minute more. Transfer aromatics to a large bowl for making meatloaf. Wipe pan clean and reserve for Step 4.

3. Form and Bake Meatloaves

Line a baking sheet with foil and set aside. Add breadcrumbs, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired to bowl with aromatics (see Recipe Tip). Pat beef dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Using your hands, mix well, then transfer meat mixture to prepared baking sheet. Divide and form into 2 equal meatloaves, about 2 x 5 inches each. Bake until meatloaves are cooked through, 16-18 minutes.

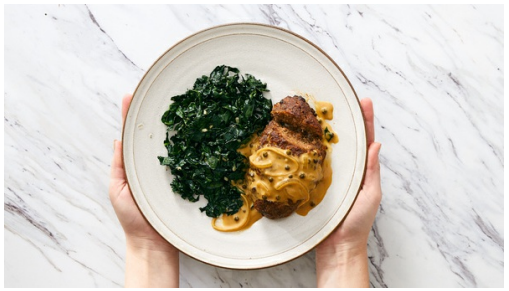

4. Sauté Kale

While meatloaves bake, return pan from aromatics to medium heat with ½ tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add garlic and sauté, stirring, until fragrant and beginning to brown, 1 minute. Add kale and sauté, stirring frequently, until wilted, about 2 minutes more. Add 1 squeeze lemon juice, then season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Divide kale between serving plates. Wipe pan clean.

5. Cook Peppercorn Gravy

Return pan from kale to medium heat with ½ tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add green peppercorns and sliced onion. Cook, stirring, until onion is soft and translucent, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour until no longer visible, then add beef stock. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium high and simmer until liquid has reduced by half, about 5 minutes more. Remove pan from heat.

6. Plate Meatloaves

Taste gravy and add salt as desired, then stir in heavy cream to combine. Transfer meatloaves to serving plates with sautéed kale, and top with peppercorn gravy. Dig in!
