Tamarind-Glazed Steak with Crispy Curried Chickpeas and Ginger Greens

Total Time: 25-35 minutes Calories per Serving: 710

Serves: 2 people

Tamarind paste is the pure concentrate form of the fruit, which grows enclosed in a brown pod. It's sweet and tangy, making it perfect in a meat glaze.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145° F.

Steak

1. Marinate Steak

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse steak and pat dry with paper towel. In a large shallow bowl or resealable plastic bag, combine tamarind paste, soy sauce, agave, and ½ of sesame oil. Add steak, turn to coat, and set aside to marinate for about 10 minutes at room temperature.

2. Roast Chickpeas

While steak marinates, drain chickpeas and rinse (see Recipe Tip). On a baking sheet, toss with curry powder, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, and ¼ teaspoon kosher salt. Arrange in a single layer, transfer to oven, and roast until crisp, 15-18 minutes.

3. Sauté Chinese Broccoli

While chickpeas roast, rinse Chinese broccoli and cut crosswise into 1-inch pieces. Trim and discard skin of ginger and mince. Rinse spinach. Heat remaining sesame oil in a medium pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add Chinese broccoli and ginger and sauté, stirring occasionally, until softening, 3-4 minutes.

4. Simmer Greens

Add ½ cup coconut milk to pan with Chinese broccoli and simmer until liquid is reduced by ½ and broccoli is bright green and tender, about 2 minutes. Add spinach and cook, stirring, until wilted, 1-2 minutes more. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed. Transfer to a plate. Save remaining coconut milk for use in another recipe.

5. Sear Steak

Wipe pan from greens clean and add ½ tablespoon canola oil over medium-high heat. Remove steak from marinade, reserving. Season all over with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper. When oil is shimmering, add steak and sear until browned on bottom, about 2 minutes. Flip, pour over reserved marinade, and sear until browned on outside and medium rare, about 2 minutes more. Remove from pan and set aside to rest for 5 minutes.

6. Plate Steak

Cut steak against the grain into ½-inch slices and divide evenly between 2 plates. Serve with chickpeas and greens alongside.

RECIPE TIPS

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Steak grain refers to the direction muscle fibers are aligned. Slicing steak against the grain yields tender pieces of meat.

Be sure to pat chickpeas dry to get the crispiest roast!
