Gyros are a Greek dish of thinly sliced roasted meat, traditionally cooked vertically on a spit. The meat is wrapped in warm pita with vegetables, and often served with feta or yogurt sauce. This summery dish is a mashup of Greek and Italian flavors-- feta, pesto, basil, oregano-- with the bread (naan) borrowed from Indian cuisine.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Rinse all produce. Mince garlic. Roughly chop basil and oregano leaves, discarding stems. Halve tomatoes. Quarter zucchini lengthwise, then cut crosswise into 1-inch pieces. Halve lemon.

2. Marinate Steak

Rinse steak and pat dry with paper towel. In a large resealable plastic bag or shallow bowl, combine red wine vinegar, balsamic vinegar, garlic, basil, oregano, juice of ½ lemon and 1 tablespoon olive oil. Add steak and shake to coat. Set aside to marinate for 10-15 minutes at room temperature. Use remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

3. Cook Zucchini

While steak marinates, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add zucchini and season with salt and pepper. Cook until golden and tender, about 6 minutes. Remove from pan and set aside.

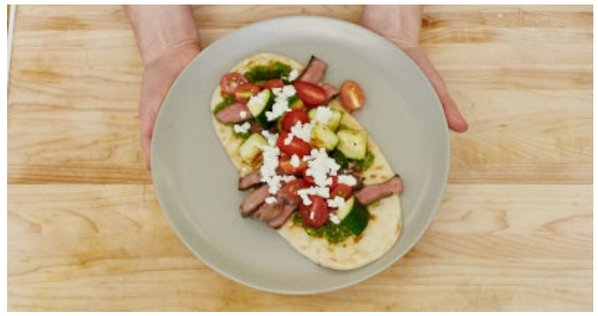

4. Cook Steak

Remove steak from marinade, allowing excess to drip off, then wiping off. Season on both sides with salt and pepper. Add 1 tablespoon olive oil to pan from zucchini over medium-high heat. When pan is just smoking, add steak and cook until browned on outside and medium rare, about 3 minutes per side. Remove from pan and set aside to rest for 5 minutes.

5. Warm Naans

While steak rests, wipe pan from steak clean and place over medium heat. Immediately add naans in a single layer, working in batches if necessary, and cook until golden and warmed through, about 2 minutes per side. Remove from pan and divide evenly between 2 plates.

6. Assemble Gyros

Cut steak against the grain into ⅛-inch slices. Spread pesto over naans, leaving a 1-inch border all around. Top with tomatoes, zucchini, and steak. Sprinkle over feta and serve.
