Chocolate Chip Buckwheat Muffins

with Greek Yogurt and Raspberry Preserves

Chocolate for breakfast? Don't worry, these muffins have some wholesome-feeling ingredients too—like buckwheat flour, oats, and Greek yogurt. They're baked until golden, then served with more yogurt swirled with raspberry preserves and topped with toasted pistachios. The best part is, this recipe makes 6 muffins, so you'll have 4 extras if you want to serve a crowd or save some for leftovers.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

You only need 2 eggs for this recipe. Save the remainder for another recipe—fry and use as a topper to upgrade leftovers, hard-boil and add to salads, or poach in tomato sauce for breakfast, lunch, or dinner.

To ensure the muffins stay soft and moist, be careful to only mix the batter lightly.

There will be 4 extra muffins—feel free to serve a larger crowd, or store the leftovers in an airtight container for up to 3 days.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 350°F. Reshape aluminum muffin tin, if bent. Line muffin tin with baking cups, then place tin on a baking sheet. In a small bowl, reserve 2 tablespoons sugar and set aside for Step 3; place remaining sugar in a medium bowl for the next step.

2. Make batter

To medium bowl with sugar (not reserved 2 tablespoons), add vanilla, 1 container Greek yogurt, 2 eggs (see recipe tip), ¼ cup water, and 3 tablespoons canola oil; whisk to combine. In a large bowl, whisk together buckwheat flour, all-purpose flour, oats, cinnamon, baking powder, and ½ teaspoon salt to combine. Gradually add wet ingredients to bowl with flour mixture; stir until just combined, being careful not to overmix (see recipe tip).

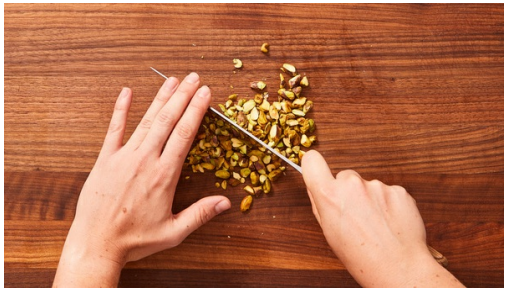

3. Finish batter

Gently fold chocolate chips into batter until just combined. Transfer batter to prepared muffin tin, filling each cup to the top. Sprinkle muffin tops with reserved 2 tablespoons sugar, diving evenly.

4. Bake muffins

Transfer baking sheet with muffins to oven and bake until tops spring back when touched and a toothpick or sharp knife inserted in the middle comes out clean, 25–35 minutes.

5. Toast pistachios

While muffins bake, place pistachios in a small pan over medium-high heat. Toast, stirring, until golden and fragrant, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board and roughly chop.

6. Plate yogurt and muffins

Once baked, let muffins cool for about 10 minutes, then carefully remove from tin. Divide remaining yogurt between serving plates or small bowls and dot with raspberry-redcurrant preserves. Using a spoon, swirl preserves into yogurt to create a marbled pattern. Garnish with pistachios. Serve each with 1 chocolate chip buckwheat muffin (see recipe tip) and enjoy!
