Chipotle Turkey Chili

with Black Beans and Cheddar

Chili con carne was first stewed up in what is now northern Mexico and southern Texas in the 1850s. A true Tex-Mex classic, chili is different from kitchen to kitchen and recipes are often guarded as a cherished secret. Tonight's version features browned turkey, smoky chipotle paste, and black beans. A white Cheddar garnish cools the subtle heat, while crispy tortilla strips add crunchy texture.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Chipotle paste is mostly smoky, but subtly spicy. It's what really flavors the chili here, but feel free to use half for milder heat.

Stand back to fry the tortillas in case hot oil splatters. If you're working in batches, note that later batches might cook quicker than the first since the oil's already hot.

USDA recommends cooking ground turkey to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Stack tortillas, halve, and cut crosswise into thin strips. Halve lime. Set aside 1 half for Step 4; cut remaining half into wedges for serving. Pick cilantro leaves; finely chop stems, keeping separate. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Mince garlic.

2. Brown turkey

Heat ½ tablespoon olive oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion, garlic, and cilantro stems; cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 5 minutes. Add turkey and season with chili powder, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up meat, until browned, about 5 minutes more.

3. Simmer chili

To pot with turkey, add crushed tomatoes, chipotle paste (see recipe tip), black beans and their liquid, and 1 cup water, stirring to combine. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium high; simmer until flavors have melded, 8–10 minutes. Remove pot from heat. Season with 1¼ teaspoons salt and black pepper as desired.

4. Fry tortilla strips

While chili simmers, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add tortilla strips in a single layer and fry, stirring frequently and working in batches as needed, until golden and crisp, 3–4 minutes (see recipe tip). Transfer to a paper towel–lined plate to drain. Season with juice of ½ lime, half of cayenne pepper (it's spicy—feel free to use more or less), and ⅛ teaspoon salt.

5. Finish chipotle turkey chili

Divide chipotle turkey chili between serving bowls. Garnish with white Cheddar, cilantro leaves, and chile-lime tortilla strips. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over. Enjoy!
