Garam Masala Chicken

with Romaine, Crispy Shallots, and Apricot-Jalapeño Vinaigrette

In tonight's Indian-inspired dish, we swap the classic chutney for a sweet and mildly spicy apricot-jalapeño vinaigrette. It's tossed with crisp romaine, golden raisins, and carrots. On top, slices of pan-roasted chicken are seasoned with garam masala, a warming spice blend that includes cinnamon, cumin, coriander, and cardamom. Almonds and fried shallots make satisfying, crunchy garnishes.

black pepper
12" large pan
6" small pot

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

The stems of cilantro are actually quite tender, so we've kept them for extra flavor and aroma. Chop as finely as possible for the best texture.

Always wash your knife, board, and hands after cutting spicy chiles.

Nuts can burn quickly, so keep an eye on them and stir frequently as they toast.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Halve romaine heart lengthwise and rinse thoroughly, then slice leaves crosswise into 1-inch pieces, discarding tough stem. Rinse remaining produce. Thinly slice carrots crosswise on a diagonal. Pick cilantro leaves and finely chop stems, keeping separate (see recipe tip). Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings. Halve jalapeño lengthwise; using a knife tip, discard seeds and stem (see recipe tip), then mince.

2. Cook chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with garam masala, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken; sear until golden on bottom, 6 minutes (it'll finish cooking in Step 4).

3. Toast almonds

While chicken cooks, place almonds in a small pot over medium-high heat. Toast, stirring frequently, until golden and fragrant, about 3 minutes (see recipe tip). Transfer almonds to a plate and set aside for serving. Reserve pot, off heat, for Step 5.

4. Finish chicken, carrots, and jalapeño

Flip chicken, still over medium-high heat, and scatter around carrots and jalapeño in pan. Cook, stirring carrots and jalapeño, until chicken is cooked through and no longer pink and carrots and jalapeño are tender, about 6 minutes. Transfer garam masala chicken to cutting board and set aside to rest, about 5 minutes. Transfer carrots and jalapeño to a large bowl (big enough for the salad); set aside.

5. Fry shallot

Return pot from almonds to medium-high heat with 3 tablespoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add 1 shallot ring to pan. If it sizzles immediately, keep going; if not, try again once the oil is hotter. Fry all shallots, stirring to prevent burning, until lightly browned and crisp, about 5 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer crispy shallots to a paper towel–lined plate to drain. Cut rested chicken into ¼-inch slices.

6. Plate chicken

To bowl with carrots and jalapeño, add apricot preserves, white wine vinegar, cilantro stems, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Whisking continuously, slowly add 2 tablespoons olive oil to combine. Add golden raisins and romaine; toss to coat, then transfer to serving plates. Top with garam masala chicken and garnish with almonds, crispy shallots, and cilantro leaves. Enjoy!
