Seared Salmon

with Whole-Wheat Penne, Goat Cheese, and Zucchini

This time of year, we're all about quick, colorful, veggie-packed dinners. With just seven ingredients and a couple pans, this simple salmon dish comes together in just under 30 minutes. Thanks to its hollow center, penne naturally holds onto the tangy, goat cheesy sauce—what's more, the whole-wheat pasta's packed with nutty flavor and chewy texture. Basil, zucchini, and juicy grape tomatoes keep this feeling extra summery.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Kitchen time-saver: Slice the basil together in one go. Stack picked leaves, roll the stack up, then cut the roll crosswise into thin slices. Separate with your fingers, and voilà.

While it cooks, pasta releases starches into the boiling water. Adding some reserved pasta water to the sauce will help it cling to the noodles in Step 5. It's easiest to reserve this water in a liquid measuring cup, if you have one.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse all produce. Thinly slice basil leaves, discarding stems (see recipe tip). Halve zucchini lengthwise, then cut crosswise into ¼-inch half-moons, discarding ends. Mince garlic.

2. Sauté vegetables

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add whole grape tomatoes, zucchini, and garlic. Sauté, stirring, until beginning to soften, 4–6 minutes. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired, then remove pan from heat. Transfer sautéed vegetables to a bowl and cover loosely with foil to keep warm. Wipe pan clean and reserve for Step 4.

3. Cook whole-wheat penne

While vegetables cook, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in penne and cook until al dente, about 6 minutes. Reserve ¼ cup pasta cooking water (see recipe tip), then drain penne and return to pot, off heat.

4. Sear salmon

While penne cooks, pat salmon dry with paper towel; season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Return pan from vegetables to medium-high heat with 2 teaspoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add salmon skin-side up; sear until golden on bottom, 5 minutes. Flip salmon and cover pan, keeping lid slightly ajar for steam to escape. Continue searing until fish is cooked through and opaque, 3–5 minutes more. Remove pan from heat.

5. Finish penne

To pot with penne, still off heat, stir in goat cheese and half of basil to combine. Adding 1 tablespoon at a time, stir in reserved pasta cooking water until sauce is silky and clings to noodles. Taste and season with salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate seared salmon

Divide whole-wheat penne between shallow serving bowls. Top with sautéed vegetables and seared salmon. Garnish with remaining basil and enjoy!
