Sesame Beef Bowls

with Snap Peas and Spinach

We love the bold flavors and textures of this Popular Recipe, from aromatic ginger and garlic in the beef to crunchy sautéed snap peas and slightly spicy kimchi. Dark, sweet hoisin sauce balances the savory and salty notes in many Chinese dishes, and does the same for the beef and vegetables here. One pot and one pan make cooking and clean up even easier.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Try this trick for peeling ginger with a metal spoon: Scrape the edge of the spoon along the outside of the ginger to quickly peel its delicate skin.

While the garlic and ginger infuse the beef with flavor, they won't be pleasant to bite into. We recommend removing them before serving.

Kimchi isn't too spicy, but if you're dining with those who prefer milder flavor, feel free to use less.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Cook rice

In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is fully absorbed, 10–12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 5 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then cover again to keep warm until ready to serve.

2. Prepare ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse all produce. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Using the flat side of a knife, gently crush garlic clove. Trim and discard skin of ginger (see recipe tip).

3. Brown beef

Pat beef dry with paper towel. Heat ½ tablespoon sesame oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat (save remaining sesame oil for Step 5). When oil is shimmering, add scallion whites and light greens, crushed garlic, and whole ginger knob. Add beef, season with ¼ teaspoon salt, and cook, breaking up, until browned, 4–5 minutes.

4. Season beef

Add hoisin and soy sauce to pan with beef, still over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring, until sauce is bubbling and beef is fully coated, about 1 minute more. Remove pan from heat, then remove and discard crushed garlic and whole ginger knob (see recipe tip). Using a slotted spoon, transfer sesame beef to a bowl. Wipe pan clean for the next step.

5. Sauté snap peas and spinach

Pat spinach dry with paper towel. Heat remaining sesame oil in pan from beef over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add snap peas, sesame seeds, spinach, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Sauté, stirring frequently, until snap peas are slightly tender and spinach is dark green and just wilted, 2–3 minutes. Remove pan from heat.

6. Plate sesame beef bowls

Divide rice between serving bowls and top with sesame beef, then sautéed snap peas and spinach, then kimchi (see recipe tip). Garnish with scallion dark greens and dig in!
