Seared Steak

with Roasted Brussels Sprouts and Creamy Mushroom Gravy

Ready to ditch the steakhouse for your homemade masterpeice? Start with a creamy gravy built on layers of super-savory flavor: a perfect brown sear on the steak that yields flavorful drippings in the pan, plenty of umami from sautéed cremini mushrooms, and an extra meaty infusion from beef stock and Worcestershire sauce. Finish with tender roasted veggies—and give our compliments to the chef.

Ingredients

- 2 steaks
- 9 ounces cremini mushrooms
- 1 lemon, divided
- 1 yellow onion
- 2 cloves garlic
- 1 herb mix
  - ⅛ ounce parsley
  - ⅛ ounce thyme
- 8 ounces Brussels sprouts
- 8 ounces red-skinned potatoes
- 1½ teaspoons tomato paste
- 8 ounces beef stock
- ½ tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons heavy cream

You'll Need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" medium pan
aluminum foil baking sheet

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Roasting Brussels sprouts cut-side down allows them to caramelize and brown evenly without burning. Space sprouts and potatoes apart to give them plenty of room to roast, rather than steam.

Here's an idea for the remaining lemon: Squeeze over carrot sticks and sprinkle with salt (plus cayenne pepper, if you're into it).

USDA recommends cooking this steak to 160°F.

1. Sear Steaks

Preheat oven to 450°F. Pat steaks dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 1½ tablespoons olive oil in a medium pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add steaks and sear until browned and medium rare, 5-7 minutes per side. Transfer steaks to a plate and cover loosely with foil to keep warm. Reserve any juices in pan, off heat, for Step 4.

2. Prepare Ingredients

While steaks sear, trim and discard mushroom stems, then wipe caps clean with a damp paper towel and cut into ¼-inch slices. Halve lemon. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Rinse remaining produce. Roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems. Halve Brussels sprouts lengthwise through roots. Cut potatoes into ½-inch pieces.

3. Roast Brussels Sprouts and Potatoes

On a baking sheet, toss Brussels sprouts and potatoes with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Spread in a single layer, arranging sprouts cut-side down (see Recipe Tip). Roast until browned and tender, 15-18 minutes. Set aside.

4. Sauté Mushrooms

While vegetables roast, place pan from steaks over medium-high heat and add 1 tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add mushrooms and onion and sauté, stirring, until mushrooms are tender and beginning to crisp, about 9 minutes. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

5. Make Mushroom Gravy

Add tomato paste, garlic, and thyme to pan with mushrooms, still over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring, until fragrant and fully coated, 1-2 minutes. Add stock and Worcestershire sauce, then bring to a boil over high heat. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until liquid is reduced by half, 5-6 minutes. Remove pan from heat and stir in heavy cream and 1 squeeze lemon juice. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate Seared Steak

Squeeze juice of ½ lemon over roasted Brussels sprouts and potatoes on baking sheet, then divide between serving plates. Transfer steaks to plates, spoon over creamy mushroom gravy, and garnish with parsley. Dig in!
