Sesame Noodles

with Roasted Chinese Broccoli and Turmeric-Chile Oil

We just love the rainbow effect of the roasted red cabbage, orange carrots, and vibrant green Chinese broccoli in tonight's noodle bowl. A sauce made with tahini (a rich, nutty sesame paste) and laced with lime and honey binds the vegetables and noodles together. We finish each serving with a drizzle of bright red Sriracha for spicy punch and another burst of bold color.

You'll need

canola oil kosher salt
black pepper
8" medium pot
baking sheet
6" small pot

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Blooming spices, or gently frying them in oil, deepens their flavors and colors. Cook just until fragrant, then remove from heat.

If the sauce is not smooth after tossing the pasta, feel free to add 1–2 more tablespoons of pasta cooking water to loosen it.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse Chinese broccoli, trim and discard bottom 1 inch of stems, then cut crosswise into ½-inch pieces. Halve 1 lime; cut remaining lime into wedges for serving. Rinse scallions, trim and discard roots, and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Peel shallots, halve, and thinly slice.

2. Roast vegetables

On a baking sheet, toss slaw mix, Chinese broccoli, scallion whites and light greens, and shallots with 1 tablespoon canola oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and roast until vegetables are tender and broccoli leaves are crisp, 7–10 minutes. Set aside until Step 5.

3. Cook noodles

While vegetables roast, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in linguine and cook until al dente, about 8 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water (to give your sauce a perfect consistency and help it cling to the noodles), then drain, return noodles to pot, and set aside.

4. Make turmeric-chile oil

While noodles cook, heat sesame oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add spice mix and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds (see recipe tip). Remove pot from heat and set aside until ready to serve.

5. Finish sesame noodles

In a medium bowl, whisk together tahini, rice wine vinegar, juice of 1 lime, honey, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired, and add to pot with pasta, along with roasted vegetables and ¼ cup pasta cooking water. Toss to coat (see recipe tip), taste, and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate sesame noodles

Divide sesame noodles between serving bowls. Drizzle over Sriracha and turmeric-chile oil, and garnish with scallion dark greens. Serve with remaining lime wedges. Dig in!
