Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us–you'll be glad you did!

Raw shallot has a strong flavor, feel free to add more or less according to your preference.

Burrata is a very delicate cheese so be sure to handle gently. Since it is filled with a soft cream, discard only the watery liquid from the container and not any cheese solids!

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse acorn squash, halve, and using a large spoon, scoop out and discard seeds. Cut crosswise into ½-inch wedges. Mince shallot.

2. Roast Squash

On a foil-lined baking sheet, toss acorn squash with 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, and as much chili powder as desired (it's spicy!). Arrange in a single layer and roast, flipping halfway through, until golden and tender, about 25 minutes total. Remove from oven, drizzle over maple syrup, and toss to coat. Set aside.

3. Cook Quinoa

While squash roasts, in a small pot, combine quinoa, 1⅓ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then cover, reduce heat to medium low, and simmer until water is evaporated and quinoa is tender, about 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside, still covered.

4. Make Dressing

While quinoa cooks, in a large bowl, whisk together apple cider vinegar, Dijon mustard, and 1 tablespoon shallot (see Recipe Tip). Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Whisking continuously, slowly add 2 tablespoons olive oil until fully combined. Add arugula to bowl with dressing and toss to coat.

5. Season Quinoa

Add cranberries, pecans, and 1 tablespoon olive oil to pot with quinoa and season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Add quinoa to bowl with arugula and stir to fully combine.

6. Plate Squash and Salad

Divide quinoa and arugula salad between 2 plates and top with maple-roasted squash. Remove burrata from container, discarding excess liquid (see Recipe Tip). Tear into bite-size pieces and dot over salad. Enjoy!
