Korean Turkey Burgers

with Kimchi, Gochujang Aioli, and Carrot Fries

We can't get enough of gochujang, a spicy, salty, rich Korean pantry staple combining fermented soybeans, dried red chiles, garlic, and other seasonings. Here, we're using the condiment to spice up turkey burgers, and blending it with mayonnaise to create a decadent dipping sauce. Topped with kimchi, enveloped in brioche buns, and paired with sesame-laced carrot fries, this is the burger you never knew you needed.

Ingredients

- 12 ounces carrots
- 2 scallions, divided
- ½ cup kimchi
- 1 tablespoon gochujang, divided
- 2 ounces mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon sesame seeds
- 3 packets soy sauce
- 2 teaspoons dark brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon ground ginger
- 12 ounces ground turkey
- 2 brioche buns
- 1 tablespoon sesame oil

You'll Need

- 1 tablespoon canola oil
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- baking sheet
- 12" large nonstick pan with lid

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Burger patties tend to puff up when cooked. Creating a shallow dimple in the center of each helps them cook evenly and keep their shape. Try rubbing 1 teaspoon canola oil between your hands before forming the patties—it'll help keep the turkey from sticking to your fingers.

USDA recommends cooking ground turkey to 160°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse carrots and quarter lengthwise, then cut crosswise into 2-inch fries. Rinse scallions, trim and discard roots, and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Roughly chop kimchi.

2. Make Gochujang Aoli

Stir up to 1 teaspoon gochujang into container with mayonnaise (gochujang is a bit spicy, so feel free use just ½ teaspoon if you prefer a milder flavor). Set aside until ready to serve.

3. Make Carrot Fries

On a baking sheet, toss carrots with sesame seeds, 1 tablespoon canola oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and roast until lightly browned and tender, 15-18 minutes.

4. Form Turkey Burgers

While carrots roast, in a medium bowl, combine soy sauce, brown sugar, ground ginger, scallion whites, remaining gochujang, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add turkey to bowl. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 2 equal patties, about 1 inch thick. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each (see Recipe Tip). Transfer to a plate and set aside until ready to use.

5. Toast Buns and Cook Burgers

Slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole. Heat a large nonstick pan over medium heat. Place buns cut-side down in pan and toast until light golden and warmed through, 2-3 minutes. Set aside. Increase heat under pan from buns to medium high and add sesame oil. When oil is shimmering, add burgers. Sear until browned on bottom, 5-6 minutes, then flip, cover pan, and reduce heat to medium. Sear until cooked through, 5-6 minutes more.

6. Plate Korean Turkey Burgers

Transfer burgers to a plate. Set aside to rest, 5 minutes. Meanwhile, divide bun bottoms between serving plates and spread with half of gochujang aioli. When burgers have finished resting, add to bun bottoms. Top with kimchi, then bun tops. Sprinkle scallion dark greens over carrot fries and serve alongside burgers. Serve remaining aioli for dipping. Dig in!
