Mediterranean Chicken

with Corn, Zucchini, and Tzatziki Sauce

Tzatziki is a traditional Greek sauce made with yogurt and cucumbers. In this Encore favorite, the refreshing dip is served with an oregano-laced sauté of shredded chicken, seasonal zucchini, and corn. Warm, smoky naan bread makes the perfect scooping utensil.

12" large pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Need a trick for removing corn kernels from the cob? Lay cob flat on your cutting board and carefully slice kernels off 1 side. Rotate cob and continue slicing to remove kernels on all sides.

Since cucumbers have a high water content, removing the excess moisture will ensure a creamier, richer tzatziki.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Quarter zucchini lengthwise, then cut crosswise into ½-inch pieces, discarding ends. Strip oregano leaves, discarding stems, and roughly chop. Halve lemons. Using the large holes of a box grater, grate cucumber into a medium bowl; alternatively, finely chop. Shuck corn, discarding husk and silk; slice off kernels, discarding cob (see recipe tip). Peel onion and cut into small dice. Mince garlic.

2. Cook chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear until cooked through and no longer pink, about 6 minutes per side. Transfer chicken to a plate and set aside to rest. Wipe pan clean and reserve, off heat, for sautéing vegetables.

3. Make tzatziki

While chicken cooks, place grated cucumber in paper towels or a clean kitchen towel and gently squeeze out any excess moisture (see recipe tip). Return drained cucumber to bowl and stir in Greek yogurt, juice of 1 lemon (or use less, as desired), ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Set tzatziki aside until ready to serve.

4. Sauté vegetables

Return pan from chicken to medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add zucchini, corn, onion, and garlic. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired and sauté, stirring, until vegetables have softened, about 5 minutes. Meanwhile, roughly chop rested chicken or shred using 2 forks.

5. Char naan and make dressing

Place a large pan over medium-high heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away from the pan—when you can easily feel heat, add naan, working in batches as needed. Toast until lightly charred and warmed through, about 2 minutes per side. Meanwhile, in a small bowl, whisk together oregano, juice of remaining lemon, 1 tablespoon olive oil, and ⅛ teaspoon salt to make dressing.

6. Finish and plate chicken

Reduce heat under pan with vegetables to medium and add shredded chicken and oregano dressing. Cook, stirring, to warm through, about 1 minute more. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired. Divide Mediterranean chicken and vegetables between serving plates and enjoy with pieces of naan for scooping and tzatziki for dipping or drizzling.
