Lemon-Honey Chicken

with Couscous, Manchego, and Rainbow Chard

We're sure you'll agree: This Mediterranean-inspired dinner strikes a masterful balance of bright and rich flavors. Pan-roasted chicken is served over caramelized, herbes de Provence-laced fennel and shallot, all topped with a tangy-sweet lemon-honey sauce. Seasonal rainbow chard adds textural interest and color to fluffy Moroccan couscous, which gets a hit of nutty Manchego cheese just before plating.

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper 10" medium pan
aluminum foil
6" small pot with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking

The whole herbs infuse the fennel with aromatic flavor during cooking, but we recommend discarding the sprigs before serving.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Pan-roast chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel; season with ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper. Heat a medium pan over medium. Hover your hand a few inches away—when you can easily feel heat, add chicken skin-side down. Sear until skin is golden and easily lifts from pan, 8–9 minutes. Flip and sear until cooked through and no longer pink, 7 minutes more. Transfer chicken to a plate, skin-side up; cover loosely with foil. Reserve fat in pan, off heat.

2. Prepare ingredients

While chicken cooks, rinse all produce. Halve fennel bulb; cut core out in a wedge shape and discard. Slice fennel as thinly as possible. Stack chard and thinly slice crosswise, keeping stems and leaves separate. Thinly slice chives. Halve lemons. Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings. Mince garlic. In a small bowl, whisk honey, juice of ½ lemon, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper to make sauce.

3. Cook couscous

In a small pot, bring 1½ cups water to a boil over high heat. Then, remove pot from heat and stir in couscous and ½ teaspoon salt to combine. Cover pot and set aside until water is fully absorbed, 5–6 minutes (Moroccan couscous isn't boiled or drained like other pastas; its small granules cook by absorbing hot liquid until soft and fluffy).

4. Sauté aromatics

While couscous cooks, return pan from chicken to medium heat with 1 teaspoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add whole rosemary sprigs, whole thyme sprigs, herbes de Provence, shallot, and garlic. Sauté, stirring, until shallot is softened and beginning to brown, 3–4 minutes. Once cooked, fluff couscous with a fork, stir in chard leaves, then cover again to keep warm.

5. Caramelize fennel

Add fennel and chard stems to pan with aromatics, still over medium heat. Sauté, stirring, until fennel is softened, about 5 minutes. Add juice of 1 lemon and cook until mostly evaporated, 30 seconds. Increase heat to medium high and cook, stirring, until browned and caramelized, 2–3 minutes more. Remove and discard whole herbs (see recipe tip). Remove pan from heat. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper.

6. Finish couscous and plate

Add Manchego to pot with couscous and chard and stir to combine, then divide among serving plates. Top with caramelized fennel, then pan-roasted chicken. Drizzle over lemon-honey sauce, garnish with chives, and dig in! Use remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.
