Crispy Shrimp Lettuce Wraps

with Sriracha Mayo and Pickled Onion

We're going for maximum crunch with these lettuce wraps, piled high with tempura-fried shrimp, cabbage slaw, and quick-pickled red onions. The onions have just enough time to absorb the vinegar without losing their crunch, a perfect tangy-sweet match for the Sriracha mayo. Forget the fork and use both hands for these wraps. The bigger the bite, the better!

- 1 red onion
- ¼ cup rice wine vinegar
- 4 ounces mayonnaise, divided
- 1 slaw mix
  - 1½ cups shredded green cabbage
  - 1½ cups shredded red cabbage
- 2 packets Sriracha
- 1¼ pounds shrimp
- 1 cup rice flour
- 1½ tablespoons Old Bay seasoning
- 1 12-ounce can seltzer water

You'll need

canola oil kosher salt
black pepper
6" small pot with lid
12" large nonstick pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The light, crispy coating on the shrimp comes from the seltzer bubbles in the batter. The batter should fizz slightly when stirred.

To see if the oil is hot enough, add 1 shrimp. If it sizzles immediately, add a few more. If there's less sizzle and the shrimp begin to stick to the bottom of the pan, wait for the oil to get a little hotter, then gently stir to prevent sticking.

USDA recommends cooking shellfish to 145°F.

1. Cook rice

In a small pot, combine rice, 1½ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, and simmer until water is fully absorbed, 10–12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then cover again to keep warm until ready to serve.

2. Prepare ingredients

While rice cooks, if you have a zester and want to infuse the rice with more flavor, rinse and zest up to ½ lime and set zest aside. Halve 1 lime; cut remaining lime into wedges for serving. Rinse lettuce, pat dry with paper towel, and separate large leaves for wraps (you'll need at least 3 per person—if you have extra, double up your wraps!). Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice 1 half; save remainder for another recipe.

3. Make slaw and Sriracha mayo

Place sliced onion in a small bowl, pour over rice wine vinegar, and set aside to pickle until ready to serve. In a large bowl, whisk together half of mayonnaise, juice of 1 lime, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add slaw mix to bowl with dressing and toss to coat. Add Sriracha to container with remaining mayonnaise and stir to combine. Set Sriracha mayo aside until ready to serve.

4. Prepare tempura batter

Pat shrimp dry with paper towel. In a large bowl, whisk together rice flour, Old Bay, 1 cup seltzer, and ½ teaspoon salt to make tempura batter (see recipe tip). Save remaining seltzer for a pre-dinner cocktail.

5. Fry shrimp

In a large nonstick pan, heat enough canola oil to reach about 1 inch up sides of pan over medium-high heat. Add shrimp to bowl with batter and toss gently to coat. When oil is shimmering, use tongs or a fork to add shrimp to pan, letting excess batter drip off (see recipe tip). Working in batches, fry shrimp, stirring occasionally, until crisp and golden brown, 3–5 minutes. Transfer shrimp to a paper towel–lined plate to drain.

6. Plate shrimp lettuce wraps

Stir lime zest into rice, if using. Drain pickled onions, discarding pickling liquid. Divide lettuce wraps among serving plates. Top with rice, slaw, shrimp, and pickled onions, and drizzle over Sriracha mayo. Serve with remaining lime wedges. Dig in!
